I wish to thank everyone who has sent me info on my Bonnell/Bunnell line on my Mother's line. Some use one spelling and others use other spellings and not sure which is the correct one French-English

I started doing genealogy in 1969 and all my grand parents were gone but had other members of their's could get info from. Otherwise I worked at the court house and library and cemeteries to find info that I could.

I with others spent many a week at the Ft. Wayne, IN library, Salt Lake City library, Madison, WI library and many hours at Columbia, MO library just about every year from when I started. There was 4 of us who went to Iowa City every month during the good weather but now one has moved, one has passed and the other can't get out any longer and no fun to go by your self. So decided it was time to stop. This was before the internet so didn't have that to rely on but was just as well as have found a lot of wrong info on the internet. (I can't say mine is all right either) As much of it was not able to be proven for sure so just had to go by what we could find. But if anyone has proof of what you find is wrong in any of my books I would appreciate knowing it. We know every one is not 100% right as no one is perfect, even in research. New Data June 2017-GLT

So hope these books will be appreciated and enjoyed as much as I had putting them together. But I think now is the time to turn them over to someone else to enjoy as I can't get to the libraries any longer and only the internet to rely on and that isn't as much fun as going to the places where your ancestor's walked themselves.

You will notice different address's but the one above is correct.

Bonnell

THE name of Bunnell, or Bonnell, is of ancient origin, and is to be found in ancient records of France, England and Ireland, the first of the name coming to England at an early period.

The Rev. David C. A. Agnew of London in his "Protestant Exiles from France" states that the surname Bonnell is Gallo-Belgic. The Belgians and Gauls were blood relations, the former dwelling in the northern districts in France and were later comers than their kinsmen the Gauls, and were stronger men and of finer development. The Gauls, the men of Central France, were a bright and intelligent people, and combined many of the characteristics of the former. Both Gauls and Belgae were of the Celtic nations and were found at the dawn of history. The Greeks and Romans knew of them several centuries before the birth of Christ, and history states that the Gauls were very formidable enemies of the Romans, Rome itself having been burned by them 389 B. C., after having migrated over the Alps into Italy. If this be the fact that the Bonnells were Gallo-Belgic, they could not have been of Norman extraction, though they may have married and intermarried among the Normans and lived within their borders.

During the reign of Louis XIV., many of the French Protestants became exiles and emigrated to England from his domains. In the Radnor group (Earl of Radnor) the name Bonnell obtained celebrity in the person of James Bonnell, Esq., whose memoir, compiled by Arch-deacon William Hamilton, published in London in 1703, and frequently reprinted, is a valued piece of biography. Thomas Bonnell (says the memoir), a gentleman of good family near Ypres, in Flanders, to avoid the Duke of Alva's (1567) fury then cruelly persecuting the Protestants in the low countries, transported himself and his family into England and settled at Norwich, where he was so well received and so much esteemed as to be afterwards chosen mayor of that city. His son, Daniel Bonnell, merchant of London, left a son Samuel, who married Rebecca, daughter of Thomas Sayer, Esq., a resident in the neighborhood of Norwich, and who spent the prime of his life in Genoa and Leghorn. This Samuel Bonnell and James Bonnell received the office of Accountant General of Ireland.

In the list of strangers in the metropolis of London, compiled in obedience to the Privy Order of September 6, 1618, there is found among residents in Cheap Ward, David Bonnell, born in Norwich, son of an alien, a merchant. The authentic pedigree in the "Visitation of Middlesex" begins with David Bonnell, of the city of London, gentleman, and his wife, Katherine Best, the daughter of a London gentleman by that name. They had children David, Jacob, Jeremy, Nathaniel and Simeon. The eldest of these five sons was styled David Bonnell, Esq., of Isleworth. He married Ann Boevey, daughter of Andrew, Esq., of London. His son, Andrus Bonnell, of St. Dustan's, in the East, was a merchant, and married, December, 1670, Ann, the daughter of Sir Thomas Aleyn, Bart.

There is but one spelling Bunnell, and this appears in Topham's Index to Chancery Proceedings under James I. between the years 1603-1625.

Bonnell, the Gallo-Belgic refugee surname, stands high in order of celebrity in England. The family settled at Norwich, county Norfolk, during the reign of Queen Elizabeth, at which time a colony of about 4,000 Flemings or Belgians, mostly weavers, also came and greatly increased the prosperity of the town by introducing the weaving of woolens and linens. Many came from Ypres, in Belgium, which town during the 14th century had a population of 200,000 and 4,000 looms, its staple products being woolens and linens. Ypres dates back into the ninth century, and during these early centuries was the center of weaving of the world. That weaving was a trade of the early Bonnels is evidenced by the fact that Joseph Bonnel, of Elizabethtown, followed the trade at one time, as did his brother Benjamin, it being prevalent among early generations that a son often followed the trade of his fathers before him.

The original spelling of the name was distinctly Bonnell. In the New Jersey records the latter "l" was dropped, and the fact that Nathaniel Bonnel, the Elizabethtown settler, and his children, including Joseph Bonnel, all spelled their names Bonnel instead of Bunnell, shows that this was the original spelling of the name, and in nearly every English record the spelling is Bonnell. The emigrant ancestor's name was spelled Bunnil and Bunnill, this being a corruption, and due to the writers of the early colonial records. According to the best authority, he descended from the family of Bonnell, French Protestant refugees who settled in England. It is known that he first settled in Watertown, Massachusetts, and later emigrated to the New Haven colony.

The Bonnell arms contain eight or nine crosses or cross-crosslets. This seems to be the general field of the escutcheon or shield with a lion rampant, either on the arms or crest.

The arms of Bonnell of London, granted 1691: Arms: Ar. a cross gu. quarterly, pierced, nine crosses three three and three counter changed. Crest: A demi-lion erased or., his tail forked and interlaced supporting in the paws a spear of the third.

The arms of Bonnel of Norfolk: Arms: Or. a lion rampant between eight crosses-crosslet, azure. Crest: A lion rampant, or., holding between the paws a cross-crosslet, az. Motto: In Domino non leon. (Not the lion, but in the master.)

The Bonnel family of New Jersey are entitled to the use of the arms of Bonnel of Norfolk. These arms were in possession of Isaac Bonnell, of Perth Amboy, New Jersey, before the Revolution. He was a great-grandson of Nathaniel Bonnell, the Elizabethtown settler. They were brought to him from England by Gov. William Franklin, son of Benjamin Franklin, on a seal which descended in the Bonnell line several generations.

I. WILLIAM BUNNELL, as his name was spelled in the records, was the progenitor of the Bonnel or Bunnell families of New Jersey. According to Savage, Vol. I, page 300, he is mentioned as an early inhabitant of the New Haven Colony. Whether Savage lost sight of the records of Massachusetts cannot be stated, but Shurtliff, in his "Records of Massachusetts," mentions him several times at the Watertown Colony. He was born about 1605. It is safe to assume that he moved to New Haven about 1647, where his first child by Ann Wilmot was born. The colonial records of Connecticut mention his wife as "Goodwife Bunnell," who testified in the New Haven court, August 7, 1649.

The following quaint records are from Shurtliff's "Records of Massachusetts," Vol. I, p. 77:

"September 28, 1630. A jury (of fifteen names, William Bunnell's being seventh on the list) impaneled to inquire concerning the death of Austen Bratcher." "Austen Bratcher dyeing lately att Mr. Braddocks plantation was viewed before his buryall by dyvrs (divers), p'sons."

Vol. I, page 307, October 7, 1640. "The country desires Watertown to grant Willi Bunnell a lot and if he do prove chargeable, the country to beare it."

Vol. II, page 139, October 6, 1645. "It is thought meete yt those things viz. cotton, wool, canvas, or else which returns should be delivered to Mr. Sparhawke and Lieut. Mason to be disposed of to Goodman (William) Bunnell, and his use."

Page 149, May 6, 1646. Committee appointed Messrs. Sparhawke & Mason, to take charge of children of Bunnell to be provided with 30 shillings worth of clothing in England, by Maverick & Manning.

"It is ordered yt if Mr. Maverick and Mr. Manning shall, please to lay out Thirty Shillings in clothing in England for William Bunnell at his arrival on their receipt under his hand for so much delivered by them to ye said William Bunnell in England this court determines it shall be repaid again here."

This record seems to show that before coming to the New Haven colony he returned to England, and that he had no children born there by a former marriage.

In the will of Benjamin Wilmot, the father of Ann Bunnell, dated New Haven, August 7, 1669, he mentions the four children of his daughter as heirs of part of his small estate, so it may be inferred that his daughter and her husband, Ann Bunnell and William Bunnell, were dead. Died at New Haven, before 1669.

Married, about 1647, Ann Wilmot, daughter of Benjamin Wilmot, a planter and settler at New Haven. Issue:

1. Benjamin Bonnell, b. about 1647.
2. Nathaniel Bonnell, of whom below.
3. Lydy Bonnel, b. about 1649.

4. Mary Bonnel, b. May 4, 1650.
5. Ebenezer Bonnel, b. Aug. 28, 1653.

II. NATHANIEL BONNELL, second son of William and Ann (Wilmot) Bunnell, was born at New Haven, Connecticut, in 1648. During the summer of 1667 the Rev. Abraham Pierson, with the families of Bonnell, Meeker, Crane, Headley, Wade and Townley, and others from Branford, immigrated to Elizabethtown. Many hardships were incident to the settlement of a new plantation in the midst of savage tribes upon whose friendship little dependence could be placed. However, little annoyance was experienced from the Indians after they had disposed of their lands in this section to the Elizabeth associates, among whom was Nathaniel Bonnel. He had a house lot of six acres 15 x 4 chains, bounded, east by Thomas Price, west and north by Isaac Whitehead (whose daughter Susannah Nathaniel Bonnel married), and south by a highway. He also had an allotment of 120 acres "Lying upon the south branch of Elizabethtown Creek, and ye plaine which said above mentioned Creek passeth through also 12 acres of meadow land lying in the greate meadows upon John Woodruffes Creek." According to the records he had 180 acres of land surveyed to him April 10, 1676, and his lands bounded on lands of Matthias Hatfield, Joseph Osborne and Isaac Whitehead. Nathaniel Bonnel was on a jury May 6, 1671, by order of Gov. Carteret, for the trial of William Hacket, captain of the sloop "Indeavor," of Salisbury county, of Norfolk (Massachusetts), New England, for illegal trading in the Province mostly at Woodbridge. He, with others, was opposed to "constituting courts," etc., whereby their land titles were liable to be dispossessed. He with many others petitioned the Crown for relief from this oppression. Nathaniel Bonnel in 1694 was one of 124 who contributed to the support of the Rev. John Harriman, his contribution being £1 10s. February 19, 1665, he with sixty-four others took the oath of allegiance. March 11, 1669, he was No. 90 in the list of one hundred and seventy freeholders at Elizabeth who drew a first lot right of one hundred acres. He became a foremost planter, and in 1692 and 1694 was a member of the General Assembly at Newark. Died at Elizabethtown, New Jersey, after 1697.

Married, at New Haven, Connecticut, Susanna Whitehead, daughter of Mr. Isaac Whitehead, who immigrated to Elizabethtown, and was one of the "Associates" of Elizabethtown. She was born 1649 and died at Connecticut Farms, New Jersey. The gravestone of Susanna (Whitehead) Bonnell, at Connecticut Farms, New Jersey, now destroyed, read: "Here lies the body of Susannah, wife of Nathaniel Bonnel, Dec'd. February ye 12th, 1733-4, in ye 84th year of her age." Issue:

III. JOSEPH BONNEL, youngest child of Nathaniel and Susanna (Whitehead) Bonnel, was born in Elizabethtown, New Jersey, in 1685. He became a prominent factor in the civil affairs of Elizabethtown. According to records of court at Newark he was chosen to the legislature in 1716 and 1721. At a meeting of the inhabitants and freeholders of Elizabethtown, August 2, 1720, Capt. Joseph Bonnel, with six others, was chosen a committee, all being freeholders, to dispose of the common lands of the town, and for the systematic and organized defense of the people's title to their inheritance of which they or their fathers had now been in possession more than fifty years. This served as an effectual barrier to all encroachments from outsiders, and gave great annoyance to the wealthy and powerful Board or Council of Proprietors, who found themselves continually checked and thwarted ever afterward by these resolute and most efficient body of committeemen, to whose energy and efficiency they could not but bear the most decided and positive testimony.

He was reappointed one of the seven selectmen or committeemen, April 4, 1732. In 1739 Joseph Bonnel's name is first among seventeen on a petition praying Governor Morris to procure from His Majesty the King a charter of incorporation for the town as a free town or borough. The names were the leading men of that town, and as Joseph Bonnel's name leads the petition, it was quite likely that he himself prepared and presented it, as he was chosen the first mayor of the borough in February of that year. He was for seven years a justice of the peace for the county. He was repeatedly chosen from 1716 to 1743 to represent the town in the General Assembly. In 1738 he was chosen speaker, and the same year appointed second judge of the Supreme Court, which he held up to his death in 1747.

He was a captain of the militia from 1718 to 1725, receiving his commission from Governor Carteret. He was commissioned mayor, holding this commission from 1727 to 1730. In 1724 he was one of the justices of the court of common pleas at Elizabethtown, and filled other important offices. On Elizabeth Town Book of Records, pp. 20, 21, 22, is to be found his signature. He was witness to a deed of Nathaniel and Azariah Crane. December 4, 1745, his signature is to be found on a deed of Ephraim Price to Samuel Hinds. This can be seen in the New Jersey Historical Society's room at Newark.

Joseph Bonnell, Esq., the first mayor of the Borough, at the close of the winter of 1747, was removed by death. He lived in the neighborhood of Connecticut Farms, where in the graveyard of the Presbyterian church his remains were buried. A monument was erected over his grave with this inscription:

"Who knew him living must lament him dead,
Whose corpse beneath this verdant Turf is laid.
Bonnell in Private Life in Public Trust,
Was wise and kind and generous and just.
In Virtues rigid path unmoved he trod,
To Self Imparted pious to his God.
Religious Patron and Patron True,
A General Good and private blessing too.
What Bonnel was and what his Virtues were,
The Resurrection day will best declare."

"Joseph Bonnell, Esq., deceased March ye 14, 1747-8, in ye 63rd year of his age."

His will, under date of October 6, 1746, names him a yeoman, also infers that he had been a weaver by trade. Proved March 22, 1747-8.

The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the car was a sense of relief. It had been a long drive, and I was finally home. The air was fresh, and the sun was shining. I took a deep breath and smiled. I was home.

I walked towards the house, feeling a sense of peace. The garden was beautiful, with flowers in bloom. I stopped for a moment to admire them. I was home.

I entered the house, and the familiar scent of home greeted me. I walked through the hall, and the door opened. I was home.

I looked at the clock on the wall. It was late. I had been out for hours. I was home.

I walked to the kitchen, and the door opened. I was home.

VI. OLIVER BONNEL, second son and third child of William and Nancy (Woodruff) Bonnel, was born on the old Bonnel homestead, at Connecticut Farms, New Jersey, March 28, 1795. He was brought up on his father's farm, acquiring the usual common school education of a farmer's son at that period. He early learned the trade of shoemaker, which he followed more or less during life. He is remembered in his father's will. He settled on a portion of his father's estate and followed his chosen occupation of farming in a small way. For a number of years he was engaged in custom mattress and cushion making, his two sons assisting in the work. He erected a cider mill on his property, where large quantities of cider were manufactured annually.

Oliver Bonnel was a man much respected in his community. He was of a retiring manner and very reticent. He was a staunch Whig in politics, and inclined to be rabid in his party principles. He and his wife Phebe were members in full communion of the Connecticut Farms Presbyterian church, where both are interred. Phebe Bonnel, his wife, was a woman of great beauty, and is remembered for her goodness. She was a smart, capable woman, and a devout church member. During her latter years she was afflicted with rheumatism.

Oliver Bonnel died intestate, April 5, 1855, and letters of administration were granted April 19, 1855, to David O. and Elias M. Bonnel, his only children, who were authorized to administrate his estate (Adm. Book 6, page 4). His estate amounted to $3,013.85. Int. Book O, page 46, filed and proved April 17, 1855. Among his effects were a lot of shoes, upper and sole leather, grain, sheep, cattle and horse, curled hair, horsepower cider mill and presses, farm implements, outstanding notes due his estate. In the census of March 20, 1829, he was the owner of twelve acres of good land at Connecticut Farms.

VI. WILLIAM JONES BONNELL, son of William and Nancy (Woodruff) Bonnel, was born at Connecticut Farms, New Jersey, March 17, 1808. He attended the nearby school until the age of fifteen years. During his minority and until his marriage he was engaged with his father and brother in the duties of the farm and the manufacture of rope, also in the making of shoes. The rope industry became a business of considerable importance. Much of the flax used in its manufacture was raised on the farm or in the immediate vicinity. The "rope walk," a building of one hundred or more feet in length, was situated in the rear of the homestead. Small ropes were mostly made for rigging to small vessels at Elizabethport, also clotheslines, holsters, and rigging for tackle blocks. On the death of the senior Bonnell, William J. came into possession of the homestead and rope works. He continued in the manufacture of rope and shoes for many years, his brother Oliver selling the products in the nearby markets. He was also engaged at carpentering in the neighborhood, and was the sexton of the old Connecticut Farms Presbyterian Church and burial grounds, and it was while in the discharge of these duties that he contracted consumption from which he died. He was honest, industrious and frugal, and a man of firm determination in all the things he undertook to do. He was strictly temperate and was imbued with a spirit, ever ready to assist others, possessing many lifelong friends and was greatly attached to his home and family. He was a member with his wife of the Connecticut Farms Church. In politics he maintained the principles of the Whig party. Died January 22, 1856.

VII DAVID OLIVER BONNELL, eldest child of Oliver and Phebe Robinson (Winans) Bonnell, was born at Connecticut Farms, Union County, New Jersey, November 19, 1826. His elementary educational training was gained in the nearby district school, supplemented by a course in the private school of Rev. Dr. Bond, at Plainfield, New Jersey. During his minority he assisted his father in the duties of the farm and in the manufacture of mattresses and cushions, also the making of shoes, upon which depended the yearly income, the son driving two horses in summer and four in winter because of the bad roads, with the output weekly to New York, where it found a ready sale. On the death of the senior Bonnell in 1855, Mr. Bonnell continued in the several lines of business established by his father, including the manufacture of cider and vinegar. On the death of his mother the following year, Mr. Bonnell removed from the parental roof to a property opposite, which he purchased and here continued his business a number of years. He subsequently purchased the old hotel property at Springfield, New Jersey, which was at that time the headquarters and stopping point of travelers and the stages between Morristown and New York. On this property stood a factory in which Mr. Bonnel established himself in the manufacture of patent leather shoes, the first ever made in New Jersey. He also manufactured fur or beaver hats for a time. After about five years he disposed of this property for $20,000. He later sold his farm and removed his family to the adjoining town of Millburn, where he engaged in general market trade for a time, finally transferring the business to his son, Oliver Bonnel, who has continued it on his own behalf. The farm spoken of here is the one bought when his father left the parental roof spoken of above. During the last seventeen years of his life Mr. Bonnel was retired from all active engagements, having been an invalid, which was caused from an accident. In personal respects Mr. Bonnel possessed many excellent qualities of mind and heart. He was greatly esteemed in his community and in his church, having been a member of the First Presbyterian Church at Springfield since 1881, where he and Mrs. Bonnel were communicants. In political preferment he was a Democrat of the old school, but in later years he upheld the principles of the Republican party. He was at one time overseer of roads of Union county.

Died, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Marcus S. Crane, at Westville, in the town of Caldwell, New Jersey, February 6, 1903. Married, Nancy Maxwell Winans, born December 22, 1838, died March 19, 1881, daughter of Nathan and Mary Ann (Crane) Winans. She was known throughout the county for her great kindness and charities, and was a very handsome woman. Although she was ill but three days, the old Revolutionary church at Springfield, though seldom filled in these days, was entirely full at her funeral.

In 1675 he obtained from the proprietors of East Jersey a patent to confirm his title to his lands in Elizabethtown. In 1710 he executed a deed to his son Nathaniel, giving him his house lot with other pieces of land at Elizabeth. He was nearly related to Jasper Crane, the early Newark ancestor, either a son or a brother. He was active in resisting the claims of the proprietors in the great land dispute which were never settled. His name appears as a defendant in the Elizabethtown bill in chancery. He owned 432 acres near Crane brook and Mill brook, and on this was his six acre house lot. He lived at Elizabethtown all his life, and followed the trade of carpenter or joiner. He became the owner of large tracts of land and was a prosperous yeoman in connection with his trade. In 1694 he contributed six shillings to the support of Rev. John Harriman, the minister of the First Church at Elizabethtown, being one of one hundred and twenty-four who subscribed, his father giving £1 10s. He was county collector, 1724-26, inclusive. He was one of the Elizabethtown Associates, and signed his name in the Elizabethtown Book B, in 1729. IV. CAPT. NATHANIEL BONNEL, second child and eldest son of Nathaniel and Mary Bonnel, was born at Elizabethtown, New Jersey, about 1696-7. He was one of the freeholders of Elizabethtown. He inherited the lands above the mountains west from Elizabethtown, and in 1736, shortly after the death of his father, became one of the first thirty-seven settlers of New Providence, or Turkey. These settlers were all of the Puritan faith, religiously educated and inclined. They could not content themselves without a church in which to worship on the Sabbath, and the following year (1737) they put up a rude structure of logs and presented a request to the Presbytery of East Jersey for a minister, and Rev. John Cleverly, a graduate of Harvard in 1715, was sent to them. Nathaniel Bonnel was among the prominent ones of the church and in the new settlement. In the autumn of 1739 the log meeting house gave place to a new frame building more commodious and better adapted to the wants of the increasing congregation. This church was known as the First Church of Turkey.

He was commissioned a captain of the militia and served in the French and Indian Wars. He was on the first grand jury in New Providence. Died at New Providence, New Jersey, November 18, 1763, aged 67 years. He is buried in the old Madison bur-

He succeeded to the Crane homestead and the saw mill property and grist mill. He was active in the management of those until his death, Sept. 11, 1763, aged 63 years. He was an influential citizen and a holder of slaves. He took an active part in church work and was an elder and trustee in the Westfield Presbyterian church under Rev. Benjamin Woodruff. He and another member agreed to build the new church, which stood until 1860, when the present one was built. He took a very active part in the Revolutionary War, and his two sons John and Elijah were enrolled as minutemen. When Washington's army was at Morristown, John Crane (1723) encouraged the farmers to bring their grain to him and he would grind it free for the army. At that time the place was known as Crane's mills. He was commissioned 2d lieutenant in Capt. Cornelius Spier's company, Col. Phillip Van Cortland's 2d Essex County Regiment, May 28, 1777, and served during the war. M. (first), May 27, 1748, Huldah Grant; m. (second), Apr., 1775, Hannah Pierson; m. He lived opposite the grist mill on the farm belonging to his father, and here all his children were born. He engaged in milling as well as farming. He instructed his sons Elias and Josiah in the science of tending both the grist and saw mills, which was of great advantage to them in after life. After the death of his father there was a division of the property among the heirs and the farm, and the mills were sold to Nicholas Mooney, and the name changed to Mooney's Mills. John moved to the old homestead, where he lived until his death. He served in the Revolution as private in Capt. Abraham Lyons' company, 2d Essex County Regiment, Col. Philip Van Cortland. He m. He early went to New York and learned the mason's trade, which he followed fifteen years. In 1812 he was drafted and went to war with a company of artillery from Westfield under Capt. Pierson. Soon after peace was declared he purchased a place just west of Galloping Hill, and lived there ten years, following the mason's trade in summer and working in saw and grist mills in winter. He and his brother Josiah Crane about 1820 engaged in getting out ship timber, which was a paying business, the country at that time abounding in white oak. In the spring of 1828 he purchased the farm that formerly belonged to Capt. Jonas Wade, which was considered one of the best abounding in orchards of apples and pears. The first year he was on this farm there was gathered over 5,000 bushels of apples. The best were sold in New York and other places, the balance taken to the cider mill which he had on the place. There was a large production of cider made and shipped south in those days. In 1845 he went to Illinois and located lands of about 1,000 acres in Henry county. He had a soldier's land warrant of his own issued in President Van Buren's time, and then by buying other land warrants of soldiers who did not desire to locate, he came into possession of about 1,300 acres. He received his education in the nearby district school until fourteen years of age. He subsequently found employment with an uncle, John Joseph Reid, where he learned the trade of varnish making in a factory then at Elizabethport, New Jersey, where he remained two years, acquiring a thorough knowledge of every detail of the process of varnishing manufacture. Another great find from John Bonnell:

Here is the document from the New Jersey State Archives that appears to relate to Nathaniel Bonnell's house. It is the warrant authorizing Nathaniel Bonnell to lay out 180 acres within the bounds of Elizabeth Towne.

Although the index in the archive lists the date as 10 April 1676, it appears that all of the warrants on this section of the page were issued on 8 April 1676.

The collection of New Jersey State Archives Lists is Part 2, Folder 21 (8 April 1676)

Order a warrant to lay out for Nathaniel Bonnell within the bounds of Elizabeth Towne 180 acres of vacant and meadow in proportion and for-see-ance 8 April (probably 1676)

Here is another document from the New Jersey State Archives. I apologize, but from here on out, the information remaining in my pile of NJ Archive data is a bit of a jumble between three different generations.

From John Bunnell:

Here is another document from the New Jersey State Archives. I apologize, but from here on out, the information remaining in my pile of NJ Archive data is a bit of a jumble between three different generations.

This is the file in the archives relating to the house built by Nathaniel Bonnell. Nathaniel was the son of William the original immigrant and the father of Samuel (1). The house is clearly a significant historical structure, even today. It must have been where Samuel (1) grew up.

The file shows several photos from different times.

The Bonnell House is a historic landmark in Elizabeth, New Jersey. Tours are available by appointment. Here's a link to the Wikipedia article on it Wikipedia Bonnell House, Elizabeth, New Jersey and one where it's part of a tour of Revolutionary War sites Revolutionary War Sites—the Bonnell House is towards the bottom of the web page.

BONNELL HOUSE

The Bonnell House on 10-5 East Jersey Street, Elizabeth, was among the several houses erected by the early settlers of Elizabeth. It was built sometime before 1682, the house being mentioned in a deed of that date.¹ Its early erection and survival to this day makes it the oldest house in Elizabeth.

The house was erected on lands purchased in October of 1664. The lands were secured from the Mattano, Manowamunge, and Connesscomen Indians by John Bailey, Daniel Denton and Luke Watson who operated under the name "Associates". Their purchase included present day Piscataway, Abby, Woodbridge, Rahway, Elizabeth, Union, Springfield and Westfield. Immediately after procuring the lands from the Indians, the "Associates" obtained a patent from Governor Nicolls of New York and then began settlement. The tract was divided according to the money subscribed to the company. The Bonnell House was erected on a lot thus secured by Nathaniel Bonnell, an original "Associate".²

The builder and original occupant of the house, Nathaniel Bonnell, was born in New Haven, Connecticut sometime between the years, 1640-1660. His father had immigrated from England to Massachusetts Bay Colony and settled in New Haven in 1640. Nathaniel Bonnell remained in New Haven until the early 1660's and settled in Elizabeth-Town in 1663.³ Bonnell became one of the lesser members of the "Associates" and participated in the original settlement of Elizabeth-Town. As early as 1665 he sat as a member of the town meeting.⁴

Bonnell undoubtedly, like most of the original "Associates", was party to the strife which early developed over the question of the validity of the Indian purchase and Nicoll's patent. The grant made in 1664 by the Duke of York to Lord Berkeley and Carteret conflicted with that of the "Associates". Although Philip Carteret did not immediately protest the "Associates" grant, the later Proprietors sought to collect quit-rents from those whose individual land titles originated with the "Associates" grant.⁶ The conflict over the initial grant of land continued well into the 18th century. One of the leaders in the battle was Bonnell's son, Nathaniel, Jr., who was appointed as a member of a committee named to act on behalf of the "Associates". The committee was charged to defend title to the land purchased by the "Associates".⁷

Nathaniel Bunnell Homestead
1045 East Jersey Street
Elizabeth, N. J.

Nathaniel Bunnell, one of the first 1665 Associates of Elizabethtown, probably built his house a few years before January, 1679, when he obtained a confirmatory grant from the Proprietors of East Jersey which states "For a house lott bonded south by a highway", now East Jersey Street.

Many 17th century archeological artifacts have been dug up around the foundation.

The house was later lived in by members of Colonel Francis Barber's family. Colonel Barber's well known Academy later became Princeton University.

Now a House Museum and Headquarters of the Sons of the American Revolution and the Union County Historical Society.

Fully restored to its original 17th Century appearance.

Samuel Bonnell in the New Jersey Court of the Oyer and Terminer for Middlesex County from October 1760

Posted: 20 May 2017 04:44 PM PDT

This information from John Bunnell got lost in my inbox. He sent it out last October and I apologize for the delay in posting it.

This is a transcription from the Genealogical Magazine of New Jersey of one of the minute books for the New Jersey Court of the Oyer and Terminer for Middlesex County from October 1760. As the preamble describes, the records regarding this court are dispersed, with loose papers and some rough minutes (only two for Middlesex County) being available at the New Jersey State Archives. This transcription, however, is for the full minute book held at Princeton University. It is unclear how many other full minute books Princeton may hold for Middlesex County.

The import of this particular document is that it lists Samuel Bonnel in relation to his constabular duties for the township of Windsor. In this case, his duties are not specific to Windsor, but in general service to the county court session. For this session, Samuel Bonnel is fined for default, which appears to mean that he did not appear when called for court duty. Although Samuel Bonnell was a reliable constable for many years, we will see that there were an increasing number of instances from 1760 through 1762 when he failed to appear, perhaps because of poor health or debt. We may conjecture that this is why he was replaced one of the Windsor constables with the 1763 election.

The desire for additional records for the Middlesex Court of the Oyer and Terminer is to supplement the missing years for the minute books for the Middlesex Court of Common Pleas (1736-1755). The hope is that the call for constables from the different townships at the beginning of every court session would help determine more precisely when Samuel Bonnell first arrived in Middlesex County, enabling us to focus our research for non-government records both in Middlesex and Somerset Counties.

Samuel Bonnell in the New Jersey Court of the Oyer and Terminer for Middlesex County from October 1780

Abstract: In this article, I will discuss the information from John Bonnell's list of his father's duties for the delay in posting it.

This is a transcription from the Genealogical Magazine of New Jersey of one of the minute books for the New Jersey Court of the Oyer and Terminer for Middlesex County from October 1780. As the preamble described, the records regarding this court are dispersed, with some papers and some rough minutes (only two for Middlesex County being available at the New Jersey State Archives). The transcription, however, is for the full minute book held at Princeton University. It is unclear how many other full minute books Princeton may hold for Middlesex County.

The import of this particular document is that it lists Samuel Bonnell in relation to his consular duties for the township of Windsor. In this case, his duties are not specific to Windsor, but in general service to the county court session. For this session, Samuel Bonnell is listed for default, which appears to mean that he did not appear when called for court duty. Although Samuel Bonnell was a reliable constable for many years, we will see that there were an increasing number of instances from 1780 through 1782 when he failed to appear, perhaps because of poor health or debt. We may conjecture that this is why he was replaced one of the Windsor constables with the 1783 session.

The basis for additional records for the Middlesex Court of the Oyer and Terminer is to supplement the missing years for the minute books for the Middlesex Court of Common Pleas (1758-1782). The hope is that the call for constables from the different townships at the beginning of every court session would help determine more precisely when Samuel Bonnell first arrived in Middlesex County, enabling us to focus our research for non-government records both in Middlesex and Somerset Counties.

THE COURT OF OYER & TERMINER ("to hear and determine") was a court constituted by the Crown to deal with crimes and offenses of an indictable or presentable nature. It was convened periodically in the several counties of the colony. Justices of the peace in the county concerned were called to serve on the bench, presided over by a judge of the Supreme Court. A quorum consisted of three judges, one of whom must be a justice of the Supreme Court. The two Supreme Court judges who usually presided during this period were Samuel Neville and Richard Sales. Constables, sheriffs, and other county officials were also summoned to serve, and a grand jury was chosen to hear the indictments. If a case went to trial, it would be heard by a petit jury.

It is important to understand that the extracts presented here are Minutes of the court, and that these may be supplemented by loose papers that reveal more detail about the case. A separate series of New Jersey court records that appears regularly in GMNJ—abstracts from Supreme Court cases 1704-1760, by Thomas H. Wilson—is taken from the actual case files (consisting of loose papers) of the Supreme Court.

A complete record of the Supreme Court's minutes in bound volumes, from its establishment in 1704 to 1843, is held by the New Jersey State Archives. (In fact, two sets of minutes survive for the 1714-1776 period, when duplicate books were kept in Burlington and Perth Amboy.) The Archives also holds a series of rough minutes for the Court of Oyer & Terminer, arranged by county and then chronologically, in pamphlets that generally cover only a single term. Coverage is uneven; for example, while there are many minute books for Monmouth County, only two for Middlesex County appear to have survived for the entire colonial period. One of these is for the October 1760 term presided over by Judge Samuel Neville—a draft or perhaps local copy of the same one transcribed below.

Loose papers for the Court of Oyer & Terminer were sorted and numbered into case files by the Supreme Court over a century ago, together with the Supreme Court case papers. These are currently catalogued in the State Archives in a single record series called simply "Supreme Court Case Files." (An index to these records, searchable by plaintiff and defendant, is available on the New Jersey State Archives website.) Thanks to GMNJ's transcription of the Oyer & Terminer minutes, and research done by Mr. Wilson, the editor, and Archives staff, it has recently become clear that this second series also includes Oyer & Terminer case files that supplement the minutes published here.

The copy of the Oyer & Terminer minute book abstracted here is held by Princeton University Library, which has made it available on microfilm. The work of making these extracts was begun by the late Phyllis B. D'Autechey and continued by Trustee Emerita Roxanne K. Carls. A detailed and informative introduction was published in GMNJ 68 (1993):97 and there is also a brief introductory explanation in GMNJ 79 (2004):91.

Although these pages are not intended to be a verbatim transcription of the original record, an attempt has been made to preserve the original format and sometimes eccentric spelling. Where the original scribe abbreviated names or frequently-used terms with a flourish of the pen, we have often spelled out the word or added in superscript the missing final letter or two. Punctuation has been adjusted where it seems helpful to do so. Legal terms are occasionally modernized, or explained within brackets or in footnotes. The names of plaintiffs and defendants are shown in bold. It should be noted that in this issue we have departed from one convention followed in previous installments: the words "The King v." now appears, as in the original, as the plaintiff in each indictment or presentment.

In the present installment (Middlesex and Monmouth Counties, October 1760), there are several indictments for which significant further information is supplied by Oyer & Terminer case papers found in the Supreme Court Case Files series noted above. Abstracts of relevant cases have been added, following the minutes of the court term.

Pg 17 States Thomas Bonnell born ca 1560 in Hondeschote, Ypres, Hainault, (Belgium). Died ca 1607 in Norwich, Norfolk Co. England.

Thomas Bonnell was considered to be Flemish because he came from the area known as Flanders. As a Huguenot, he fled from his home in Ypres to escape the persecutions of the Duke of Alva, who represented Charles V of Spain and his occupation forces of the Netherlands. He first arrived in Canterbury, Kent Co. England and lived in the street of the weavers, there. In the undercroft of Canterbury Cathedral, the French speaking Protestants held religious services. In 1985 the author, Harold F. Powell and his wife attended a French Language service commemorating the 300th anniversary of the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes which Louis XIV promulgated removing the previous act of Toleration of protestants. On the wall in the undercroft is a small plaque in memory of Thomas Bonnell who had arrived 100 years earlier. The French weavers were removed to the Spitals ward of London or to Norwich, Norfolk Co., England. The weavers, there were given the parish church of ST John, Wards of Wymer, ST Martin at the Palace, Norwich. There vacant churches at this time because the manufacture of woolen goods was done in Flanders, Hainault the areas of modern Belgium and northern France.

Thomas Bonnell soon became Mayor of Norwich and was a leading person there. He is listed as a foreigner paying taxes in Norwich. (Huguenot Society of London, Publication Vol 1 part 2).

First he list children of first wife as: 1. Daniel bur. 27 Jul 1624 STGeorge Tombland, m. Rebecca Fenn. 2. David md. Cateline. 3. Thomas. 4. Benjamin b. 7 Jan 1590. 5. Susan b. 15 Jul 1591. 6. Judeth, md. 1594 John Marshall (not right-GLT). 7. John bpt. 19 Aug 1595.

Then he goes on to list his first marriage to Jacque Marie Bygote ca 1580 in Hondeschote and list the first four as: Elizabeth b. 30 Jun 1595, Abraham b. ca 1599, Isaac b. ca 1604 and Judye b ca 1606. Then he md 2nd to unknown woman and had: Thomas Jr. b. ca 1588, Benjamin b. 1590, Daniel d. 1624, David, Susan b. 1591, Judeth b ca 1593 and John b. ca 1595. Info from family group sheets from Salt Lake City and also from book "Memorials of the Boevey Family" by Arthur Crawley-Boevey. He was also listed in the will of father 1607. Death date from will also?

Info from book "Harold Frederic Powell Genealogy" states Daniel married Cateline. He was also from first unknown wife.

BIRTH: Not sure when born but if married at age 20 in 1605 he would have been born abt 1585, if older would be later.

Research done by William R. Austin listed David married 1st Catherine de Beste of London and they had 14 children between 1605 & 1625: Catherine, Susanna, David, Jacobus, Anna, Samuel, Esther, Jeremias, Nathaniel, Sarah, Simeon, Maria, Paul and Elizabeth.

He married 2nd Maria van Sornbeke, widow of Andries de Meulmeester.

OTHER MARRIAGES:

Maria VAN SORNBEKE-1201 (MRIN:449)

Married: 20 Mar 1633/1634

CHILD 3 Thomas BONNEL-1196

NOTES:

Sources for Thomas: Info from family group sheets from Salt Lake City and also from book "Memorials of the Boevey Family" by Arthur Crawley-Boevey. He was also listed as single in the will of father 1607.

Info from book "Harold Frederic Powell Genealogy" list Thomas Jr b. 1588 Norwich, England. It is thought father Thomas came to England ca 1585.

Research from William R. Austin has stated he was single in 1607 at time of fathers will and had found nothing more on him. Believe him to be son of Thomas and 1st wife. probably born before parents coming to England.

CHILD 4 Benjamin BONNEL-1193

NOTES:

The name has been spelled several different ways. Bonnell most prominent. Has been Bunnell, Bonnel, Bonnell most used.

BIRTH: Benjamin was born prior to 1595 according to family group sheets Salt Lake City. Prob. some years before. He died 1610 to 1615 in London, England where he came to from France. Only child listed is William. Probably had more. One source states his father may have been Thomas Bonnel (that info not on fgs).

It was stated his father, Thomas came to England in 1585, if that is so, Benjamin would have been born in England and not in Belgium/France. Again this is conjecture as no proof has come forward that this Benjamin was the son of Thomas Bonnell who came from France to England.

He was listed in several other books which was used as sources of the listed under National Council in (1932)

Info from research done by William E. Smith on Thomas Howell has stated he was located near info on children, first wife, unknown, Daniel, 18-18 and daughter, and wife daughter before he had 7 children: Susan, John, Elizabeth, Marie, Elizabeth, Isaac and John (Jude) mostly info on children from details records of their birth.

CHILD 1: DANIEL HOWELL-1857

James Marie Howell-1857 (Wills:432)
Married: 1858

England

Wife: (London) THOMAS-1858

WIFE:

The name of first wife of Thomas Howell is not known. It is believed that James Howell was his 2nd wife.

The book "Records of the Family of Howell" however list first wife as James with children 5, 1857 to 1858 and 2nd wife unknown with children 6, 1858 to 1859. (Believe the wives are James Howell, and first unknown wife in brother of our forefathers). But note it John was son of 1st or 2nd wife either.

CHILD 2: DANIEL HOWELL-1857

WIFE:

Info from family group sheets from Salt Lake City and also from book "Memorials of the Howell Family" by Arthur Crawley-Howell. He was also listed in the will of father 1857. Death date from will also.

Info from book "Records of the Family of Howell" states Daniel married 17 Jul 1858 in Wrentham, England. Daniel was prob. son of first unknown wife and probably 1st or 2nd child.

Info from research done by William E. Smith has stated Daniel married Elizabeth before of Wrentham and had 3 children between 1858 & 1861: Daniel, Elizabeth, Susan. Daniel (who became accountant - General for friends), Susan, Isaac and John.

CHILD 3: DANIEL HOWELL-1857

WIFE:

Info from family group sheets from Salt Lake City and also from book "Memorials of the Howell Family" by Arthur Crawley-Howell. He was also listed in the will of father 1857. Death date from will also.

Info from book "Records of the Family of Howell" states Daniel married Caroline. He was also from first unknown wife.

BIRTH: Not sure when born but it married at age 20 in 1858 he would have been born mid 1835. If other would be later.

Research done by William E. Smith listed Daniel married 1st Catherine de hosts of London and they had 4 children between 1858 & 1861: Catherine, Daniel, Susan, John. Daniel, Susan, John, Elizabeth, Susan, Isaac and John.

He married and Marie van der Meer, widow of father de Westchester.

CHILD 4: DANIEL HOWELL-1857

Marie van der Meer-1857 (Wills:440)
Married: 1858

CHILD 5: THOMAS HOWELL-1858

WIFE:

Research for Thomas: Info from family group sheets from Salt Lake City and also from book "Memorials of the Howell Family" by Arthur Crawley-Howell. He was also listed in the will of father 1857.

Info from book "Records of the Family of Howell" states Thomas married 1858. It is thought father Thomas came to England in 1857.

Research from William E. Smith has stated he was single in 1857 at time of father will and had found nothing more on him. Believe him to be son of Thomas and 1st wife. Probably born before parents coming to England.

CHILD 6: DANIEL HOWELL-1858

WIFE:

Info from book "Records of the Family of Howell" states Daniel married 1858. He was born in England, son of Thomas Howell.

BIRTH: Daniel was born prior to 1855 according to family group sheets from Salt Lake City. Prob. some years before, he died into to 1855 in London. Daniel came to first family. Only child listed in William. Probably had more. The names listed are listed may have been Thomas Howell (that info not on file).

It was stated his father, Thomas came to England in 1857. It is thought he would have been born in England and not in England. Note that in research, note that in research that this Daniel was the son of Thomas Howell and came from France to England.

Info from the book "Harold Frederic Powell Genealogy" states Benjamin was born 7 Jan 1589/90 in Hoondechoote, Ypres, Hainault, Belgium, according to source Vera Reeve, CG, Reg. Huguenot Ancestors, Nat Hug Soc, 1983, pg 12. Died after 1607 in London, England. Which would make him son of first wife unknown?

Also stated he may have had a brother or nephew who became Lord Treasurer for Ireland under Oliver Cromwell about 1650.

His wife is also unknown and only one son is known to date. (another source said his wife was Rebecca Brooks-where that came from other than LDS group sheet I don't know-GLT) Again there has been no proof.

One source said Thomas came to Norwich England abt 1577-79 so if that was the case Benjamin was born in England and not France if born after that. This source was the book "Day Unto Day" A Study of the Day Family In America by Margery Frances Day Hanson pub. 1978. She says Benjamin born Norwich, England.

Family group sheet from Ancestral File of LDS located Davenport library. Stated Benjamin 2nd son of Benjamin Sr. and 3rd son Solomon. Also stated mother was Jacque Marie Bygotè and believe this was 2nd wife of Thomas and not mother of Benjamin.

Several books read on this family, most listed under Nathaniel Jr (R #528).

Research info from William R. Austin also has reservations about Benjamin being the son of Thomas Bonnell of England. He has located 4 references for Benjamin that may be son of Thomas, baptised in Norwich on 7 Jan 1589. 2nd- on 25 Jun 1606 Benjamin bonnel, Bachelor, was given a certificate of membership in the Dutch church in London. 3rd-in August 1606 the Member Book of the Dutch Church lists Benjamin Bonnel, living with David Bonnel (his brother) with attestation from Norwich and 4th- Benjamin was mentioned in his father's will probated in Norwich 11 Nov 1607 and would have been age 18. Again he is not sure that this Benjamin is father of William of the Americias.

Info from the book "London's Jewish Community" states Benjamin was born 7 Jan 1714/15 in London, England, and died 1780 in London, England. Benjamin was the son of Isaac and Sarah (née) Benjamin. Benjamin was a member of the Jewish community in London, England, and was a member of the Jewish community in London, England. Benjamin was a member of the Jewish community in London, England, and was a member of the Jewish community in London, England.

Also stated he may have had a brother or nephew who became Lord Treasurer for Ireland under Oliver Cromwell about 1650.

His wife is also unknown and only one son is known to date. (Another source said his wife was Rebecca Brooker, whose name was given after the group.)

The source said Thomas was in Norwich, England, the 1777-78 as it that was the case Benjamin was born in England and not France as he later stated. This source was the book "The Jews of London" by J. H. Green, published in 1910. The source said Benjamin was born in Norwich, England.

Family group sheet from Somerset, 1714-1780, located in the Somerset Library. Stated Benjamin was son of Benjamin Sr. and Sarah. Also stated neither was Benjamin's wife and believed this was the wife of Thomas and not another of Benjamin.

Several books read on this family, with listed under Benjamin II (1730).

Research info from William B. Jones also has conversations about Benjamin being the son of Thomas Bowen of England. He has located a reference for Benjamin that may be son of Thomas, married in Norwich on 7 Jan 1749. Benjamin was a member of the Jewish community in London, England, and was a member of the Jewish community in London, England. Benjamin was a member of the Jewish community in London, England, and was a member of the Jewish community in London, England. Benjamin was a member of the Jewish community in London, England, and was a member of the Jewish community in London, England.

HUSBAND Thomas BONNEL-1195

NOTES:

BIRTH: Info from Susan George and the book "Memorials Of Boevey Family" by Arthur W. Crawley-Boevey. Was said he was born near Ypres, at Hondchoote, Flanders, France. They were believed to be French Huguenots. This book was referred to by William Austin as "The Perverse Widow: Being Passages from the life of Catharina, Wife of William Boevey, Esq., of Flaxley Abbey, in the County of Gloucester With Genealogical Notes on That Family and Others Connected therewith." compiled by Arthur W. Crawley-Boevey, M.A., Bombay Civil Service (Ret.) Barrister-at-law of Lincoln's Inn; Fellow of the Huguenot Society of London. Published by Longmans, Green, and Co., 39 Paternoster Row, London; New York and Bombay 1898. (I'm not sure these are not two different books by same author-GLT)

The Huguenots fled to England 1577-79 and was living in England during the reign of Elizabeth I. (was Thomas one of them at this time?)

MARRIAGE: Thomas was married twice. First wife is not known and second wife was Jacqueline Bygote. (Name written as Jacquemaine and Jacque Marie as well). According to William R. Austin he had Daniel, David, Thomas & Benjamin by 1st wife and 2nd wife he had Susan, John, Elizabeth, Maria, Abraham, Issac & Judye.

In the book "Harold Frederic Powell Genealogy" written by Harold F. Powell 1991 stated his first wife was Jacque Marie Bygot and his 2nd wife was unknown. 4 children by Jacque and 7 by 2nd wife. Benjamin our line from 2nd mg. (this is just reverse to what is right).

DEATH: Thomas's will was proved 11 Nov 1607 in Norwich, England. Death dates of Daniel and David listed in will of Thomas.

Thomas was Mayor of Norwich (don't know when). He also owned a home in St John Parish, Wymer Ward in Norwich, England. He was Elder of Walloon Church in Norwich, England in 1595.

The Columbia Lippincott Gazetteer of the World published Europe in Salt Lake City at Reg table #910.3 c723G pg 2127 Had this info on Ypres.

Ypres (e'pru; colloquially, in First Word War, wi ;purz) Flemish Ieper (e;pur) town (pop. 17, 073), west Flanders prov. W. Belgium 30 mi SSW of Bruges; textile industry; agr. market. Textile center in Middle Ages; importance decline in 16th cent. Frequently besieged in 16th, 17th and 18th cent. Site of 3 major battles (1914, 1915, 1917) in First World War., when town was almost entirely destroyed, since rebuilt. American Memorial near by commemorates fighting. (Should look up Hoondschoote).

Info from the book "Harold Frederic Powell Genealogy" compiled by Harold F. Powell and pub. 1991 has some of the same info as others but believed turned around. Copied pages 17-29 on the Bonnell family.

Pg 17 States Thomas Bonnell born ca 1560 in Hondeschoote, Ypres, Hainault, (Belgium). Died ca 1607 in Norwich, Norfolk Co. England.

Thomas Bonnell was considered to be Flemish because he came from the area known as Flanders. As a Huguenot, he fled from his home in Ypres to escape the persecutions of the Duke of Alva, who represented Charles V of Spain and his occupation forces of the Netherlands. He first arrived in Canterbury, Kent Co. England and lived i the street of the weavers, there. In the undercroft of Canterbury Cathedral, the French speaking Protestants held religious services.

In 1985 the author, Harold F. Powell and his wife attended a French Launguage service commemorating the 300th anniversary of th Revocation of the Edict of Nantes which Louis XIV promulgated removing the previous act of Toleration of protestants. On the wall in the undercroft is a small plaque in memory of Thomas Bonnell who had arrived 100 years earlier. The French weavers were removed to the Spitals ward of London or to Norwich, Norfolk Co., England. The weavers, there were given the parish church of ST John, Wards of Wymer, STMartin at the Palace, Norwich. There vacant churches at this time because the manufacture of woolen goods was done in Flanders, Hainault the areas of modern Belgium and northern France.

Thomas Bonnell soon became Mayor of Norwich and was a leading person there. He is listed as a foreigner paying taxes in Norwich. (Huguenot Society of London, Publication Vol 1 part 2).

First he list children of first wife as: 1. Daniel bur. 27 Jul 1624 STGeorge Tombland, m. Rebecca Fenn. 2. David md. Cateline. 3. Thomas. 4. Benjamin b. 7 Jan 1590. 5. Susan b. 15 Jul 1591. 6 Judeth, md. 1594 John Marshall (not right-GLT). 7. John bpt. 19 Aug 1595.

Then he goes on to list his first marriage to Jacque Marie Bygote ca 1580 in Hondeschoote and list the first four as: Elizabeth b. 30 Jun 1595, Abraham b. ca 1599, Isaac b. ca 1604 and Judye b ca 1606. Then he md 2nd to unknown woman and had: Thomas Jr. b. ca 1588, Benjamin b. 1590, Daniel d. 1624, David, Susan b. 1591, Judeth b ca 1593 and John b. ca 1595. The dates with the wives don't work and it is believed Thomas's first wife was unknown and his 2nd wife was Jacque Bygote.

He was listed in several other books which was used as sources which are listed under Nathaniel Bonnell Jr (R#528)

Info from research done by William R. Austin on Thomas Bonnell has stated he has located some info on children, from 1st wife, unknown, Thomas, Daniel, David and Benjamin. 2nd wife Jacquelyn Bygote he had 7 children: Susan, John, Elizabeth, Maria, Abraham, Isaac and Judye (Judith) mostly info on children from baptism records of their births located from the IGI records at the Family History Library.

He is not convinced that William Bonnell was son of Benjamin who was son of Thomas Bonnell of England as no proof has been forth coming, however there is a good possibility that is the correct line, it is also conjectured at this time.

The Boevey book William Austin referred to, listed Thomas Bonnell, founder of this branch of the Bonnell family in England, and closely connected with the Boevey family, was a gentleman of good family of Hondschoote, near Ypres in Flanders. Hondschoote, in the Chatellenie of Bergues, was one of the first towns in which the reformed religion was introduced; and as early as 1547, proceedings were taken against Guillaume van Damme for having prohibited books in his possession, and writing letters concerning the reformed religion, which terminated with his execution. Hondschoote had in 1566 a population of 28,000 inhabitants, and was an important center of the cloth trade, which caused it to have many business relations with England. Serious disturbances broke out there in 1566 and churches were ravaged and destroyed.

On 16 Feb 1568 a sentence of the Inquisition condemned all the inhabitants of the Netherlands to death as heretics. Only a few persons especially named were excepted. A proclamation of the King dated ten days later confirmed this decree of the Inquisition, and ordered it to be carried into instant execution, without regard to age, sex or condition. Multitudes of all ranks left the country and settled in England, Holland and Germany.

In 1572 another memorable influx of foreigners to England took place on the occasion of the massacre of St. Bartholomew. In 1585, on the sacking of Antwerp, many merchants and citizens came over to England.

It is not known when Thomas Bonnell made the move from Flanders to England. The earliest reference that was located was in England in 1581, but believe he had been there for some time before.

It is believed when Thomas and his family moved to England they settled in the city of Norwich, in Norfolk county, where they lived first in the parish of St. John and by 1589 or before in the parish of St. Martin at Palace, both in the Wymer Ward in the city of Norwich. He apparently achieved considerable prominence there. He became an elder in the Walloon church at Norwich on 4 Oct 1595 and it has been asserted that he later became Mayor of Norwich. However this claim does not seem to be supported by any of the public records of the city of Norwich.

The first reference of "Thomas Boonnell" an alien was taxed 16 shillings and 8 pence on goods worth 100 shillings from English records of tax list of 1581. (if he actually was there by 1581 most of his children by 1st marriage would have been born there unless he was there first and left his family in Flanders before coming to England later-GLT) He also was listed as one of the largest taxpayers in several pages of names. In 1597 and again in 1599 he paid a tax of 21s 4d on goods valued at 4f.

The name of his first wife is not known but believed to have died after their fourth child, Benjamin was born and christened 7 Jan 1589. He married 2nd and their first child was said baptized 15 Jul 1591, so had married prob. abt 1590.

Thomas died in 1607 and his will was proved in the Consistory Court of Norwich 11 Nov 1607. In his will he named his present wife Jacquelyn and referred to children by her without mentioning their names. He named specifically his sons Thomas, Daniel, David and Benjamin, apparently by a former wife. He also mentioned by name Daniel, Rebecca, Hester and Abigail Bonnell, children of his son Daniel and Catherine and Susan, daughters of his son David, as well as Judith Marchant, "my grandchild".

William Austin says he has found no further record of him after being listed in fathers will and unmarried in 1607. Daniel married and had 9 children and David married twice and had 14 children by 1st wife.

There was four references for a Benjamin Bonnell in the English records. 1st-his baptism in Norwich on 7 Jan 1589. 2nd- on 25 Jun 1606 Benjamin Bonnel, Bachelor, was given a certificate of membership in the Dutch church in London. 3rd- in Aug 1606 the Member Book of the Dutch church lists Benjamin Bonnel, living with David Bonnel (his brother) with attestation from Norwich. 4th- he was mentioned in his father's will probated in Norwich 11 Nov 1607 and at this time he was age 18.

John, Abraham and Isaac, sons of Thomas and 2nd wife have only been found in baptismal records in Norwich to date. Since these children were not mentioned in his will it is possible they had died before his will was executed. (or they could have been under the listing of mentioned children and not named and nothing has been located to date as the daughters were said to have married and they weren't listed by name in will either-GLT)

THOMAS BONNELL, THE HUGUENOT

In the Newsletter and in my correspondence I have been outspoken in an effort to put to rest what I consider to be the spurious claim that William Bunnell was a son of Benjamin Bonnell and a grandson of Thomas Bonnell, the Huguenot of Norwich, England. It occurred to me that it might be wise to set forth what we do know about Thomas Bonnell and his family.

The most extensive investigation of this family, and the primary source for what follows, is contained in a book, a copy of which was sent to me by Mrs. William George, Phoenix, AZ. It is entitled, "THE PERVERSE WIDOW: Being Passages from the Life of CATHARINA, WIFE OF WILLIAM BOEVEY, ESQ., of Flaxley Abbey, in the County of Gloucester. With Genealogical Notes on That Family and Others Connected Therewith.", compiled by Arthur W. Crawley-Boevey, M.A., Bombay Civil Service (Ret.), Barrister-at-law of Lincoln's Inn; Fellow of the Huguenot Society of London. Published by Longmans, Green, and Co., 39 Paternoster Row, London; New York and Bombay. 1898.

Additional information, particularly the baptisms of Thomas's children and grandchildren, comes from the International Genealogical Index.

THOMAS BONNELL, founder of this branch of the Bonnell family in England, and closely connected with the Boevey family, was a gentleman of good family of Hondschoote, near Ypres in Flanders. Hondschoote, in the Chatellenie of Bergues, was one of the first towns in which the reformed religion was introduced; and as early as 1547, proceedings were taken against Guillaume van Damme for having prohibited books in his possession, and writing letters concerning the reformed religion, which terminated with his execution. Hondschoote had in 1566 a population of 28,000 inhabitants, and was an important center of the cloth trade, which caused it to have many business relations with England. Serious disturbances broke out here in 1566, and churches were ravaged and destroyed.

The chief emigration of the Protestants commenced after the defeat of Austruweel 13 March 1567, and considerably increased after the arrival of the Spanish troops, following two principal lines. The Calvinist ministers for the most part took refuge in England, where their churches and consistories had long been regularly organized; the fighting men preferred an asylum in Germany.

On 16 February 1568 a sentence of the Inquisition condemned all the inhabitants of the Netherlands to death as heretics. Only a few persons especially named were excepted. A proclamation of the King dated ten days later confirmed this decree of the Inquisition, and ordered it to be carried into instant execution, without regard to age, sex, or condition. Multitudes of all ranks left the country and settled in England, Holland, and Germany, under these circumstances.

In 1572 another memorable influx of foreigners to England took place on the occasion of the massacre of St. Bartholomew. In 1585, on the sacking of Antwerp, many merchants and citizens came over to England.

It is not known when Thomas Bonnell made the move from Flanders to England. The earliest reference I have found to him in England was in 1581, but he had probably been there for some time.

When Thomas and his family moved to England they settled in the city of Norwich, in Norfolk county, where they lived first in the parish of St. John and by 1589 or before in the parish of St. Martin at Palace, both in the Wymer Ward in the city of Norwich. He apparently achieved considerable prominence there. He became an elder in the Walloon church at Norwich on 4 October 1595, and it has been asserted that he later became Mayor of Norwich. This claim does not seem to be supported by any of the public records of the city of Norwich.

The first reference to Thomas Bonnell found in the English records is a tax list of 1581 in which "Thomas Boonnell", an alien, was taxed 16 shillings and 8 pence on goods worth 100 shillings. He was one of the largest taxpayers in several pages of names. In 1597 and again in 1599 he paid a tax of 21s 4d on goods valued at 4£.

We have not found the name of his first wife, whom he apparently married in Flanders. By her he was the father of four sons, Thomas, Daniel, David and Benjamin. Thomas, Jr., and Daniel, and perhaps also David, were born in Flanders. However, the fourth son, Benjamin, was born in Norwich, where he was christened on 7 January 1589.

Thomas's wife died soon after the birth of Benjamin, and he married (second) Jacquemaine (Jacquelyn) Bygote of Norwich. Their children were:

Susan, baptized 15 July 1591, married 22 June 1610

Jan Le Cerf.

John, baptized 19 August 1593.

Elizabeth, born 30 July 1595, baptized 10 August 1595; married 11 November 1623 Abraham van Soldt.

Maria, married January 1618 Abraham Verstripen.

Abraham, baptized 15 April 1599.

Isaac, baptized 1 January 1604.

Judye (Judith), baptized 16 March 1605/6; married

Lewis de Graf.

Thomas Bonnell died in 1607, and his will was proved in the Consistory Court of Norwich 11 November 1607. In his will he named his present wife Jacquelyn, and referred to children by her without mentioning their names. He named specifically his sons Thomas, Daniel, David, and Benjamin, apparently by a former wife. He also mentioned by name Daniel, Rebecca, Hester and Abigail Bonnell, children of his son Daniel, and Catherine and Susan, daughters of his son David, as well as Judith Marchant, "my grandchild."

Of the sons, Thomas, Jr., was still unmarried in 1607. I have found no further record of him.

Daniel married Rebecca Fenne of Norwich and had nine children between 1600 and 1618: Daniel, Daniel again, Rebecca, Hester, Abigail, Samuel (who became Accountant-General for Ireland), Sara, Anne, and Tobie.

David married (first) Catherine de Beste of London, and (second) Maria van Sornbeke, widow of Andries de Meulmeester. Fourteen children, born between 1605 and 1625, all by the first wife: Catherine, Susanna, David, Jacobus, Anna, Samuel, Esther, Jeremias, Nathaniel, Sarah, Simeon, Maria, Paul and Elizabeth.

Benjamin has been found in four references in the English records. First, his baptism in Norwich on 7 January 1589. Second, on 25 June 1606 Benjamin Bonnel, Bachellor, was given a certificate of membership ~~of membership~~ in the Dutch Church in London. Third, in August 1606 the Member Book of the Dutch Church lists Benjamin Bonnel, living with David Bonnel (his brother), with attestation from Norwich. Fourth, Benjamin was mentioned in his father's will probated in Norwich 11 November 1607. At this last appearance in the records he was age 18.

John, Abraham and Isaac, sons of Thomas by his second wife, have been found so far only in the baptismal records in Norwich. Since Thomas did not mention these children by name in his will it is not known whether they were still living when he died.

Barbara Lee Lewis, Hayward, CA, sent me this clipping from the January-February issue of the PEO Record. Can anyone tell us anything more about Linda Bunnell and where she fits in the family tree?

For the last two years Linda Bunnell, IH, Elkhorn, Nebraska, has served as "Chief-tain" of the Scottish Society of Nebraska. She is the first woman to be accorded that distinction. She teaches sixth grade social studies.

Mary Katherine DeLong, Belvedere, CA, sent me a collection of clippings she obtained from the files of the San Francisco Examiner. Among them was this item from the issue of Sunday, 6 August 1950, under the heading KOREA WAR NEWS, noting that Pfc. Gordon E. Bunnell, of 1131 Fresno Avenue, Berkeley, CA, appeared on the latest Korean casualty list "issued yesterday by the Department of Defense." Bunnell, who was wounded, age 20, "is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Bunnell. The father is a San Francisco insurance man. Young Bunnell graduated from Berkeley High School in 1948 and worked for Southern Pacific in the East Bay until he enlisted in the First Cavalry Division fourteen months ago. He has two sisters, Phyllis and Dorothy, living at home."

[I can't place this family in my records. Can anyone help?]

HUSBAND Benjamin BONNEL-1193

NOTES:

The name has been spelled several different ways. Bonnell most prominent. Has been Bunnell, Bonnel, Bonnell most used.

*Most info here refers to the son of Thomas Bonnel of Norwich, England but not necessarily father of William of CT. Nothing said about his marriage either. It may be possible that this Benjamin died 1610-15 in London but again he may not have been the father of our William BIRTH: Benjamin was born prior to 1595 according to family group sheets Salt Lake City. Prob. some years before. He died 1610 to 1615 in London, England where he came to from France. Only child listed in Family group sheet from Salt Lake City was William. Probably had more. One source has listed for this Benjamin a son Benjamin 1612-aft 1657 and Solomon Bunnell b. ca 1614. One source states his father may have been Thomas Bonnel (that info not on fgs). Also it is not proven that William Bonnell of CT is son of Benjamin Bonnel either.

It was stated his father, Thomas came to England in 1585, if that is so, Benjamin would have been born in England and not in Belgium/France. Again this is conjecture as no proof has come forward that this Benjamin was the son of Thomas Bonnell who came from France to England.

Info from the book "Harold Frederic Powell Genealogy" states Benjamin was born 7 Jan 1589/90 in Hoondechoote, Ypres, Hainault, Belgium, according to source Vera Reeve, CG, Reg, Huguenot Ancestors, Nat Hug Soc, 1983, pg 12. Died after 1607 in London, England. Which would make him son of first wife unknown?

Also stated he may have had a brother or nephew who became Lord Treasurer for Ireland under Oliver Cromwell about 1650. (the son of Thomas did have brother that was said to be Accountant for Ireland).

His wife is also unknown and only one son is known to date. (another source said his wife was Rebecca Brooks-where that came from other than LDS group sheet I don't know-GLT) Again there has been no proof.

William R. Austin said there wasn't a marriage record located for Benjamin and anyone.

One source said Thomas came to Norwich England abt 1577-79 so if that was the case Benjamin was born in England and not France if born after that. This source was the book "Day Unto Day" A Study of the Day Family In America by Margery Frances Day Hanson pub. 1978. She says Benjamin born Norwich, England.

Family group sheet from Ancestral File of LDS located Davenport library. Stated Benjamin 2nd son of Benjamin Sr. and 3rd son Solomon. Also stated mother was Jacque Marie Bygote and believe this was 2nd wife of Thomas and not mother of Benjamin.

Several books read on this family, most listed under Nathaniel Jr (R #528).

Research info from William R. Austin also has reservations about Benjamin being the son of Thomas Bonnell of England as being the father of William of CT. He has located 4 references for Benjamin that may be son of Thomas, baptised in Norwich on 7 Jan 1589. 2nd- on 25 Jun 1606 Benjamin bonnel, Bachelor, was given a certificate of membership in the Dutch church in London. 3rd-in August 1606 the Member Book of the Dutch Church lists Benjamin Bonnel, living with David Bonnel (his brother) with attestation from Norwich and 4th- Benjamin was mentioned in his father's will probated in Norwich 11 Nov 1607 and would have been age 18. Again he is not sure that this Benjamin is father of William of the Americias.

It appears this Benjamin was son of Thomas but not necessarily father of our William Bonnell of CT. It also appears no record of him after age 18 in 1607 when listed in fathers will.

WIFE Rebecca BROOKS?-1194

CHILD 1 Benjamin BUNNELL-1678

NOTES:

Family group sheet from Ancestral File of LDS located Davenport library. Stated Benjamin 2nd son of Benjamin Sr. nothing more on him.

CHILD 2 Solomon BUNNELL-1679

NOTES:

Family group sheet from Ancestral File of LDS located Davenport library. Stated Benjamin 2nd son of Benjamin Sr. nothing more on him.

HUSBAND Benjamin BONNEL-2862

NOTES:

The name has been spelled several different ways. Bonnell most prominent. Has been Bunnell, Bonnel, Bonnell most used.

BIRTH: Benjamin was born prior to 1595 according to family group sheets Salt Lake City. Prob. some years before. One source states his father may have been Thomas Bonnel (that info not on fgs). Also it is not proven that William Bonnell of CT is son of Benjamin Bonnel either.

It was stated his father, Thomas came to England in 1585, if that is so, Benjamin would have been born in England and not in Belgium/France. Again this is conjecture as no proof has come forward that this Benjamin was the son of Thomas Bonnell who came from France to England.

Info from the book "Harold Frederic Powell Genealogy" states Benjamin was born 7 Jan 1589/90 in Hoondechoote, Ypres, Hainault, Belgium, according to source Vera Reeve, CG, Reg, Huguenot Ancestors, Nat Hug Soc, 1983, pg 12. Died after 1607 in London, England. Which would make him son of first wife unknown?

Also stated he may have had a brother or nephew who became Lord Treasurer for Ireland under Oliver Cromwell about 1650.

William R. Austin said there wasn't a marriage record located for Benjamin and anyone. (at least this Benjamin)

One source said Thomas came to Norwich England abt 1577-79 so if that was the case Benjamin was born in England and not France if born after that. This source was the book "Day Unto Day" A Study of the Day Family In America by Margery Frances Day Hanson pub. 1978. She says Benjamin born Norwich, England.

Family group sheet from Ancestral File of LDS located Davenport library. Stated Benjamin 2nd son of Benjamin Sr. and 3rd son Solomon. Also stated mother was Jacque Marie Bygote and believe this was 2nd wife of Thomas and not mother of Benjamin.

Several books read on this family, most listed under Nathaniel Jr (R #528).

Research info from William R. Austin also has reservations about Benjamin being the son of Thomas Bonnell of England. He has located 4 references for Benjamin that may be son of Thomas, baptised in Norwich on 7 Jan 1589. 2nd- on 25 Jun 1606 Benjamin Bonnel, Bachellor, was given a certificate of membership in the Dutch church in London. 3rd- in August 1606 the Member Book of the Dutch Church lists Benjamin Bonnel, living with David Bonnel (his brother) with attestation from Norwich and 4th- Benjamin was mentioned in his father's will probated in Norwich 11 Nov 1607 and would have been age 18. Again he is not sure that this Benjamin is father of William of the Americias.

It appears this Benjamin was son of Thomas but not necessarily father of our William Bonnell of CT. It also appears no record of him after age 18 in 1607 when listed in fathers will.

CHILD 1 - William Bunnell *

The name has been spelled numerous ways but mostly Bunnell and Bonnell. (Mostly Bonnell our line).

Several sources have said Benjamin Bonnell b. 1589 England-died 1610-15 London was his father but William R. Austin has done extensive research on this line and can find no proof of who William's father was so at this time it is only conjecture that Benjamin was his father. They may have been in the same place at the same time but again that isn't proof. Again conjecture comes into play as William's first son was named Benjamin and at that time the naming pattern was the first son was named after the father's father. Which wasn't always the case either, as Benjamin was also fathers name of wife Ann Wilmot.

I have info on this Benjamin and believe his father Thomas Bunnell under Rin #'s 1195 & 2862, just in case we ever find out they do connect.

There is also a Benjamin Bonnell d. 1610-1615 that said was md to Rebecca Brooks and listed 3 children: William 1610, Benjamin 1212- d aft 1657 and Solomon b 1614. (no other info on these and maybe a generation before our William. Needs more research to be sure. -GLT

Family group sheets from Salt Lake City. Was farmer and tanner. He was born in in England and came to Mass Bay Colony 1630 on the ship "James". He returned to England after his wife died about 1654, where he died in 1669. Who took care of children, as was known, they did not go to England. Sources listed on family group sheets: Lt. Wm. Frency and his Descendants in New England History. NEHGR Oct 1890. A Gen. Directory of 1st Settlers of New England by Savage. Amerian Marriage Records before 1699 by Clemens.

The court sent William back to England as they had taken care of him before his wife died and put out all their children as he wasn't able to take care of them or his wife. It is believed his father in law took them for a while then the court again had charge.

Bonnell History by Edgar Gibby pub 1962 pg 3 says emigrated to America in 1638 from Cheshire, England. He took the oath of fidelity in 1648. Have copy.

Book "Harold Frederic Powell Genealogy" States William b. ca 1615 in Cheshire or Norwich. Died 1654 in England. Immigrated ca 1640 to New Haven. (It was believed he died in 1669-GLT). He also quotes info from the book "William Bunnell And His Descendants" by Ruth Duncan. Also info from Bunnell Newsletter by William R. Austin.

Ruth's book list several court records that list William Bunnell. Powell states it appears that William was a ne'er-do-well. Several court records show that he was asked to vacate houses which he occupied. The town found him to be a drain on its resources and provided him with passage to Newfoundland because he had said that he had friends in England. His children were parceled out to the community after their grandfather, Benjamin Wilmot was unable to care for them. He then returned to New Haven about the time of Civil War in England (1643-1660) then went back to England after his wife died in 1654.

In 1646 after William left for England, his wife took her children to New Haven, CT to join her father, who had settled there about 1639. The elder son, Benjamin was apprenticed there to Nicholas Elsey and the daughter, Lydia to Samuel Whitehead. William came back from England about the end of 1649 and joined his family in New Haven. His two youngest children were born there. Here again the family was a charge to the community. In Oct 1651, William sued for the return of his two apprenticed children, but the court ruled against him. Ann and infant son died in 1654, shortly after William went back to England, apparently at the expense of the community.

Much was written on William in the book "Bunnell And Allied Families" by Joan England Murray 1990. Mostly written in story form and much the same info as other sources.

William R. Austin has done much research on this family and he sent me some of what he had done, some of it the same as what has already been reported and his info is in chronological order.

It is pretty certain he was born in England and probably about 1600 but in Apr 1650 he was relieved of paying his poll tax because of his poverty, age and weakness. (Would this be referred to a man of age 50?-GLT) Maybe they were considered aged at that time.

He appears first in the Massachusetts Bay Colony, where he was selected on 28 Sep 1630 to be a juror in an inquiry concerning the death of one Austen Bratcher. Therefore, we can suppose that he was one of the settlers who arrived in New England in the great Winthrop fleet of 1630. (Charles Edward Banks, in his book The Winthrop Fleet of 1630, identified this juror with the William Burnell who died at Boston in 1660/1. However, the name is clearly Bunnell in the record and no reason to assume it was misspelled).

William Bunnell does not appear in the records again for the next ten years. In the meantime he married Ann Wilmot, daughter of Benjamin and Ann Wilmot, presumably at Massachusetts Bay, although he (WRA) said he found no record of the Wilmot family in Massachusetts. Benjamin Wilmot was one of the early settlers of New Haven Colony, where he signed the covenant some time after June 1639. This is the earliest record of him in the colonies, but it is known that many of the early New Haven Colony settlers came first to the Massachusetts Bay Colony, where they lived anywhere from nine months to ten years before moving to New Haven in 1638-43. (So they still could have been there-GLT).

"National Society Sons & Daughters of the Pilgrims" Lineage Book IV pg 190 #9049: Lenette Charlene Renie b. Marshall, Calhoun Co. MI has listed in her info starting from Benjamin Wilmot and Ann Ladd to dau Ann Wilmot who md William Bunnell b. ca 1610/20 and died 5 Aug 1678. (This is the latest date for his death, others have stated ca 1669- yet she has complete date.) Then lists lineage down to her parents.

The book "The Perverse Widow, Memorials of the Boevey Family" mentioned before has listed the direct line of Thomas Bonnell of Norwich and 1st wife and 2nd wife Jacquemaine Bygot. 4 children by 1st wife and 3 by 2nd wife. Benjamin listed here with no birth date, which others and she had referred to as being born 1589 and being the father of William Bonnell b. ca 1600/10, which is too close to really fit, which was said to be our line in England back to France. Others have researched this and found no proof of any connection to date.

From Bunnell/Bonnell Newlsetter V24 #1 Feb 2010 listed some records from IGI files in Salt Lake City and one listed was William Bonnel and Ann Wilmot Bonnel's son Nathaniel Bonnel born abt 1644. To date this is also what many sources have stated.

1669- yet she has complete date.) Then lists lineage down to her parents.

The book "The Perverse Widow, Memorials of the Boevey Family" mentioned before has listed the direct line of Thomas Bonnell of Norwich and 1st wife and 2nd wife Jacquemaine Bygot. 4 children by 1st wife and 3 by 2nd wife. Benjamin listed here with no birth date, which others and she had referred to as being born 1589 and being the father of William Bonnell b. ca 1600/10, which is too close to really fit, which was said to be our line in England back to France. Others have researched this and found no proof of any connection to date.

From Bunnell/Bonnell Newsetter V24 #1 Feb 2010 listed some records from IGI files in Salt Lake City and one listed was William Bonnell and Ann Wilmot Bonnell's son Nathaniel Bonnell born abt 1644.

To date this is also what many sources have stated.

WIFE - Ann Wilmot

BIRTH: No birth date has been stated but was prob. around 1620 if md ca 1640 and started having children by then.

Wm returned to England after his wife died about 1654, where he died in 1669. Who took care of children, as was known, they did not go to England. Sources listed on family group sheets: Lt. Wm. French and his Descendants in New England History. NEHGR Oct 1890. A Gen. Directory of 1st Settlers of New England by Sagave. American Marriage Records before 1699 by Clemens. Compendium of American Genealogy Vol 4 and NEHGR 1-1x pg 69.

"Bunnell & Allied Families" by Joan Murray 1990 has stated a lot of court records of William and Ann and their children. Seems William wasn't taking care of wife and children and was at courts mercy. The court put out most of the children to others to care for as William wasn't. Here last child Ebenezer stated as not living long after birth & mother died same time. The court sent William to England where he said he had friends to care for him. It is not known when or where William died.

The Wilmot Family of New Haven, CT by Jacobus pub 1904. Need copy.

Bonnell History by Edgar Gibby pub 1962 pg 3 says William emigrated to America in 1638 from Cheshire, England. He took the oath of fidelity in 1648. Have copy. No one has birth date or place for Ann, yet her parents are known. Some have stated her father was Benjamin Wilmot.

CHILD 1 - Benjamin Bunnell

Info from family group sheets of Salt Lake City. Also Families of Ancient New Haven CT by Jacobus pg 358. Also New Haven Gen. Mag Vol 1. Had 11 known children. Was married twice. 10 by first wife and 1 by 2nd.

CHILD 2 - Nathaniel Bunnell SR*

He used the spelling of Bunnell and his descendants used Bonnell. Much has been written on Nathaniel but to date no exact death date. Was after 1696 but believed before 1711.

Family group sheets from Salt Lake City states died after 1696.

Pg 359 of "Families of Ancient New Haven" Vol 1 by Donald Jacobus has no death date. He also states Nathaniel was married Jan 1665 according to New Haven Records.

pg 4 of "Genealogy of the Bonnell Family" by Edgar M. Gibby pub 1962. States Nathaniel born 1649-50 (we know he was older then 15 when married. He d. after 1696.

Family group sheets used several sources for their info: New Haven Vital Records pg 24; New Haven Geneal Mag. CHILD 2 - Nathaniel Bunnell SR* (Continued)

His burial was in the Connecticut Farms cemetery in Union Co. NJ. Maria Roseberry visited the cemetery and sent a photocopy of the stone of son Nathaniel Jr.

He was one of the "Original Associates" of Elizabethtown, NJ 19 Feb 1665 so again the birth date of 1644 would prob. be more accurate. Susannah's father Isaac Whitehead was also one. He was a member of the jury for the first trial held in Elizabethtown in May 1671. His house built before 1682 on East Jersey Street, is the oldest residence standing in Elizabeth. At 1045 E. Jersey ST. The Bonnell History has a picture of the house as it was in 1962.

In 1692 he represented Elizabethtown in the General Assembly. He was a contributor to the support of Rev. John Harriman, pastor of the Elizabeth Town Presbyterian Church.

Then in 1696 he signed a petition of the inhabitants of Elizabethtown to the Crown, seeking relief from the oppression of the Lords Proprietors. So we know he died after that.

Compendium of Am Gen. Vol 7 pg 27 stated Nathaniel Bunnell took Oath of Fidelity at Elizabethtown, NJ 1665. Md 1665 to Susannah Whitehead. Was also info on son Joseph.

Vol 23 pg 48 NJ Archives: pg 47 starts, have only pg 48: acres on the Middle Branch, a tract of land called New Britain; personal estate. Executors- brothers Joseph and Benjamin Bounel. Wit: Jonathan Dickinson, Cornelius Hetfeld, Samuel Whitehead. Proved 29 Jan 1711-2.(will of son Isaac?)

Correspondence with several on this line.

Maria Roseberry visited Nathaniel's home in New Haven and then the cemetery where he was buried in the summer of 1992 and then sent me photocopies of them. She did much research while there as well.

Book "Harold Frederic Powell Genealogy" states much the same as above. B. ca 1644 d. ca 1696 and md. 3 Jan 1665/6 in New Haven.

Book "William Bunnell And His Descendants" by Ruth Duncan states much the same as well. Both are buried in the Connecticut Farms Cem. in Union, NJ. His father in law moved to Elizabeth Town and they did also. All in agreeance that they had 7 children.

"Bunnell Newsletter" by William R. Austin stated that about 1652-1653 there was much considerable agitation in New Haven for Nathaniel to be put out as an apprentice. The town was paying for the family's upkeep and resented paying for a hungry child when alternatives were available. One of the neighbors had offered a cow for the boy, but the Bunnells had refused. It was asserted that the boy was becoming wild through lack of management and training. After his mother died and his father went back to England, Nathaniel may well have been apprenticed, If so, no evidence has been found of it.

The next evidence of him was his marriage date 3 Jan 1665/66 when he was married by Mr William Jones at New Haven. Almost immediately after their wedding, Nathaniel and Susannah with her father and his family, joined the party about to settle Elizabethtown, NJ.

In Elizabethtown Nathaniel had a house lot of six acres, 15 chains by 4 chains, bounded east by Thomas Price, west and north by his father in law Isaac Whitehead, SR, and south by the hiway. He also had an allotment of 120 acres, "lying upon the south branch of Elizabethtown Creek and by ye plaine which said above creek passeth through," and 12 acres of meadow "lying in the Great meadows upon John Woodruff's Creek." On 11 Mar 1669 he was NO. 90 in the list of one hundred and seventy freeholders at Elizabeth who drew a first lot right of one hundred acres. He had 180 acres surveyed to him on 10 Apr 1676 and his lands bounded on lands of Matthias Hatfield, Joseph Osborne and Isaac Whitehead. His house on East Jersey Street is now the oldest existing residence in Elizabeth, NJ.

6 May 1671 he served on a jury and he was also one of the executors of his father in law's estate under the terms of Isaac Whitehead's will which was dated 31 Jan 1690/1 and proved 26 Feb 1690/1.

CHILD 3 - Lydia Bunnell

Info from family group sheets of Salt Lake City. Also Families of Ancient New Haven CT by Jacobus pg 358.

Bonnell History by Edgar Gibby 1962 pg 4 states Lydia died 10 Apr 1698. Prob 1708 is correct.

CHILD 6	- Elizabeth Bunnell (twin) Info from family group sheets of Salt Lake City. Only reference to Elizabeth is in IGI files of LDS microfiche files. She probably died young as did Ebenezer. Book "William Bunnell And His Descendants" by Ruth Duncan. No one else has mentioned a daughter Elizabeth, only IGI files. Book "Bunnell And Allied Families" by Joan Murray 1990 also doesn't list a dau Elizabeth. "Bunnell/Bonnell Family In America Vol 1" by William R. Austin does not mention a daughter Elizabeth as well.

The only place I have found the reference to Elizabeth is in the

"International

Genealogical Index" of the LDS church microfiche files. I have added her on, but would like further proof. I guess it is not vital, as she probably died in early infancy, as did Ebenezer.

NATHANIEL BUNNELL or BONNELL (William) was probably born in one of the towns of the Massachusetts Bay Colony. At the time of the move to New Haven, CT, in 1646, Ann (Wilmot) Bunnell had "divers small children." Benjamin and Lydia were apparently the two who were put out to other families. The births of Mary and Ebenezer were recorded in New Haven in 1650 and 1653 respectively. Nathaniel was therefore probably the youngest of three brought from Massachusetts Bay. He was probably born between 1640 and 1642.

In 1652 and 1653 there was considerable agitation in New Haven for this boy to be put out as an apprentice. The town was paying for the family's upkeep and resented paying for a hungry child when alternatives were available. One of the neighbors had offered a cow for the boy, but the Bunnells had refused. It was asserted that the boy was becoming wild through lack of management and training. After his mother died and his father went back to England, Nathaniel may well have been apprenticed. If so, however, no evidence has been found of it.

The events of his youth went unrecorded. We next see him on his wedding day, 3 January 1665/6, when he was married by Mr. William Jones at New Haven to SUSANNAH WHITEHEAD, daughter of Isaac and Mary Whitehead. She was born at New Haven 5 August 1650. Almost immediately after their wedding, Nathaniel and Susannah, with her father and his family, joined the party about to settle Elizabethtown, NJ. Both Nathaniel Bunnell and Isaac Whitehead are listed among the 65 persons who took the oath of allegiance at Elizabethtown 19 February 1665/6.

In Elizabethtown Nathaniel had a house lot of six acres, 15 chains by 4 chains, bounded east by Thomas Price, west and north by his father-in-law Isaac Whitehead, Sr., and south by the highway. He also had an allotment of 120 acres, "Lying upon the south branch of Elizabethtown Creek and by ye plaine which said above creek passeth through," and 12 acres of meadow "lying in the Great meadows upon John Woodruff's Creek." On 11 March 1669 he was No. 90 in the list of one hundred and seventy freeholders at Elizabeth who drew a first lot right of one hundred acres. He had 180 acres surveyed to him on 10 April 1676, and his lands bounded on lands of Matthias Hatfield, Joseph Osborne and Isaac Whitehead. His house on East Jersey Street, mentioned in a 1682 deed, is now the oldest existing residence in Elizabeth, NJ. He sold some land in Elizabethtown to Benjamin Price on 15 June 1677.

In addition to being a large landowner, Nathaniel became prominent in community affairs. He served on a jury, 6 May 1671, by order of Gov. Carteret, for the trial of William Hackett, captain of the sloop "Indeavor," of Massachusetts, for illegal trading in the Province. "Nathaniel Bunnell" was one of the executors of his father-in-law's estate under the terms of Isaac Whitehead's will, which was dated 31 January 1690/1 and proved 26 February 1690/1. In 1692 he was a member of the General Assembly from Elizabethtown.

In 1694 "Nathaniel Bunnell" was among the 124 members of the First Presbyterian Church of Elizabethtown who subscribed to the support of Rev. John Harriman, his contribution being L1 10 s. His son "Nathaniel Bunnell, Jr.," was also one of the subscribers, and his son Isaac subscribed a few years later.

He, like many others, was opposed to "constituting courts," etc., whereby their land titles were liable to be dispossessed. He was one of the petitioners to the Crown for relief from this oppression by the Lords Proprietors. This seems to be the last public mention of his name. He probably died not long afterward, perhaps about 1696, without leaving a will.

His widow outlived him for many years. She moved out to Connecticut Farms (now Union, NJ) where her son Joseph was living. Her gravestone in the Presbyterian churchyard at Connecticut Farms read:

by the middle of 1649, or earlier, William Bonnell returned from England and followed his family to New Haven. On 3 April 1650 he makes his first appearance in the New Haven records, when the Court freed old John Bonnell from paying his poll money to the town, because of his poverty, age and weakness. This is the only reference to William's age in any record. I find it difficult to believe that he was less than 30 years old at the time this statement was made. (N-1-1-3)

On 4 May 1650 Ann Bonnell gave birth to another daughter, Mary, and in August of that year William was fined 5 shillings for failure to report the birth within three months. A few months later he was in trouble again. On 7 January 1651/2 John Tompson sought the help of the Court to make William Bonnell move out of Tompson's house. Tompson said he was willing to give him a year's rent if he would ever peacefully out.
This probably means that the Bunnells were at least a year behind in their rent payments, which Tompson would forgive if they would simply leave. The Court ordered William to move, and gave him two or three weeks to do so. A month later John Tompson was back in Court again asking that William Bonnell be put out of his house. This time Stephen Goodyear undertook to guarantee the move if Tompson would let the Bunnells stay for another week. John Tompson expressed himself satisfied with that arrangement, and apparently it was successful, since the issue did not come before the Court again. (N-1-1-4)

In October 1651 it was William's turn to sue, when he asked the Court to revoke the apprenticeship agreements Ann and her father had made with Nicholas Ely and Samuel Whitehead. The Court refused to do so.

In 1645 the General Court appointed a committee with power to dispose of the children of Goodman Bunnell, "if their grandfather will not take care of them" (The grandfather, Benjamin Wilmot, had moved to New Haven Colony several years before.) On the same day the Court provided that certain goods be delivered to the same committee "to be disposed of to Goodman Bunnell & his use." Six months later, in May 1646, William Bunnell returned to England, and the Court agreed to pay for 30 shillings worth of clothing for him when he arrived there. (N-I-2-2,3)

There is nothing to show why William went back to England or where in England he went, but he seems to have simply abandoned his family. In a court action in New Haven several years later his wife testified that "he left little or nothing to maintain them, and she asked him what she should do with them; he said they were hers as well as his, and he left them with her." One of the sons, presumably Benjamin, testified that "he remembers his father did say so to his mother." (N-I-2-5). With no alternative, Ann Bunnell took the three children and moved to New Haven to live with her parents. Her father could not support such a large addition to his family, and they decided "to put forth the children." Nicholas Elsy took one of the boys, presumably the elder (Benjamin, in the traditional order), and Samuel Whitehead took Lydia.

This probably means that the Bunnells were at least a year behind in their rent payments, which Tompson would forgive if they would simply vacate. Nicholas Elzy took one of the boys, presumably the elder (Benjamin, in the traditional order), and Samuel Whitehead took Lydia.

During the next six or eight months the town authorities had to "consider of the charge which old Bunnell hath been to the town, and how it might be lessened." The first step was to give him an allowance of two shillings a week, "provided that he and his family do what they can towards their maintenance." Then they took up the problem of the son who was still at home (presumably Nathaniel). The Townsmen felt that the boy should be put out to apprenticeship, both to reduce the charge to the Town, and for the good of the boy, "who now for want of due nurture grows rude and offensive." William Judson offered the Bunnells a cow if he could take the boy for "such a number of years as might answer it." When William Bunnell refused to accept this arrangement, the Townsmen retaliated by withdrawing the weekly allowance. (N-I-2-6)

On 28 August 1653 another son, Ebenezer, was born to the Bunnells. He seems to have died very soon. The following February it was reported that Ann Bunnell was sick, and the authorities were still concerned about how much public support was proper and how to make sure that the two remaining children (Nathaniel and Mary) were put out "both for the good of the children (who are not educated as they should) & for the easing the Town of charge." (N-I-2-6, 7).

Ann Bunnell died soon after, and on the first of May 1654 William told the Town he wanted to go to old England where "he hath some friends to take care of him." The Townsmen and Treasurer were authorized to negotiate his passage on a ship bound from Milford to Newfoundland (and presumably from there to old England). Their conclusion was that this "might free the Town from some charge, though they made some present disbursement for his passage and other necessities for him." (N-I-2-7)

That is William Bunnell's last appearance in the records of New Haven. We can assume that he boarded the ship and returned to England. He left his four children in New Haven. No record exists to show whether the two younger children were "put out", or if so to whom. Perhaps their grandparents or their maternal uncles assumed responsibility for them. Benjamin Wilmot, in his will dated 7 August 1669, left 20 shillings to each of his Bunnell grandchildren (N-I-2-7).

William Bunnell probably died in England, if he ever arrived there. It is sometimes asserted that he died on the island of Barbadoes in the West Indies, since a man of that name was buried in the parish of St. Michaels, Barbadoes, 5 August 1678. This seems very unlikely, since William would have been around 80 years old and would have made at least five crossings of the Atlantic Ocean.

Notes

HUSBAND - Nathaniel Bunnell SR*

He used the spelling of Bunnell and his descendants used Bonnell. Much has been written on Nathaniel but to date no exact death date. Was after 1696 but believed before 1711.

Family group sheets from Salt Lake City states died after 1696.

Pg 359 of "Families of Ancient New Haven" Vol 1 by Donald Jacobus has no death date. He also states Nathaniel was married Jan 1665 according to New Haven Records.

pg 4 of "Genealogy of the Bonnell Family" by Edgar M. Gibby pub 1962. States Nathaniel born 1649-50 (we know he was older then 15 when married. He d. after 1696.

Family group sheets used several sources for their info: New Haven Vital Records pg 24; New Haven Geneal Mag. II: 358-9; Hatfield History of Elizabeth, NJ pgs 57/8, 71, 135/6, 159, 183, 254; NJ Archives, 1st series, 21:184, 23:47 (have pg 48 but need 47, believe this is will of son Isaac, dated 29 Jan 1711-12 Lib 1 pg 368); American Marriage

Records before 1699 by Clemens and NJ Patents & Deeds, 1664-1703 by Nelson.

His burial was in the Connecticut Farms cemetery in Union Co. NJ. Maria Roseberry visited the cemetery and sent a photocopy of the stone of son Nathaniel Jr.

He was one of the "Original Associates" of Elizabethtown, NJ 19 Feb 1665 so again the birth date of 1644 would prob. be more accurate. Susannah's father Isaac Whitehead was also one. He was a member of the jury for the first trial held in Elizabethtown in May 1671. His house built before 1682 on East Jersey Street, is the oldest residence standing in Elizabeth. At 1045 E. Jersey ST. The Bonnell History has a picture of the house as it was in 1962.

In 1692 he represented Elizabethtown in the General Assembly. He was a contributor to the support of Rev. John Harriman, pastor of the Elizabeth Town Presbyterian Church.

Then in 1696 he signed a petition of the inhabitants of Elizabethtown to the Crown, seeking relief from the oppression of the Lords Proprietors. So we know he died after that.

Compendium of Am Gen. Vol 7 pg 27 stated Nathaniel Bunnell took Oath of Fidelity at Elizabethtown, NJ 1665. Md 1665 to Susannah Whitehead. Was also info on son Joseph.

Vol 23 pg 48 NJ Archives: pg 47 starts, have only pg 48: acres on the Middle Branch, a tract of land called New Britain; personal estate. Executors- brothers Joseph and Benjamin Bounel. Wit: Jonathan Dickinson, Cornelius Hetfeld, Samuel Whitehead. Proved 29 Jan 1711-2.(will of son Isaac?)

Correspondence with several on this line.

Maria Roseberry visited Nathaniel's home in New Haven and then the cemetery where he was buried in the summer of 1992 and then sent me photocopies of them. She did much research while there as well.

Book "Harold Frederic Powell Genealogy" states much the same as above. B. ca 1644 d. ca 1696 and md. 3 Jan 1665/6 in New Haven.

Book "William Bunnell And His Descendants" by Ruth Duncan states much the same as well. Both are buried in the Connecticut Farms Cem. in Union, NJ. His father in law moved to Elizabeth Town and they did also. All in agreeance that they had 7 children.

"Bunnell Newsletter" by William R. Austin stated that about 1652-1653 there was much considerable agitation in New Haven for Nathaniel to be put out as an apprentice. The town was paying for the family's upkeep and resented paying for a hungry child when alternatives were available. One of the neighbors had offered a cow for the boy, but the Bunnells had refused. It was asserted that the boy was becoming wild through lack of management and training. After his mother died and his father went back to England, Nathaniel may well have been apprenticed, If so, no evidence has been found of it.

The next evidence of him was his marriage date 3 Jan 1665/66 when he was married by Mr William Jones at New Haven. Almost immediately after their wedding, Nathaniel and Susannah with her father and his family, joined the party about to settle Elizabethtown, NJ.

In Elizabethtown Nathaniel had a house lot of six acres, 15 chains by 4 chains, bounded east by Thomas Price, west and north by his father in law Isaac Whitehead, SR, and south by the hiway. He also had an allotment of 120 acres, "lying upon the south branch of Elizabethtown Creek and by ye plaine which said above creek passeth through," and 12 acres of meadow "lying in the Great meadows upon John Woodruff's Creek." On 11 Mar 1669 he was NO. 90 in the list of one hundred and seventy freeholders at Elizabeth who drew a first lot right of one hundred acres. He had 180 acres surveyed to him on 10 Apr 1676 and his lands bounded on lands of Matthias Hatfield, Joseph Osborne and Isaac Whitehead. His house on East Jersey Street is now the oldest existing residence in Elizabeth, NJ.

6 May 1671 he served on a jury and he was also one of the executors of his father in law's estate under the terms of Isaac Whitehead's will which was dated 31 Jan 1690/1 and proved 26 Feb 1690/1.

Husband	Samuel Bunnell
Wife	Abigail ?Unknown
Notes HUSBAND - Samuel Bunnell Family group sheet from Salt Lake City says b. 167- d. 1715. Bonnell History by Edgar Gibby list no record for Samuel. New Haven Families by Jacobus says Samuel md. Abigail, step dau of Samuel Rose, which is what the family group sheet used as info. Bunnell/Bonnell Newsletter by Wm Austin vol X # 2 pg 18 has stated Samuel Bonnell, brother of Benjamin (who md Sarah Potter) married Abigail _____ daughter in law of Samuel Rose. Believe they had no children. But was possible there was one Benjamin Bunhill of Elizabeth Town who binds himself, with the consent of his mother Abegell Bunhill, as apprentice to Anthoy Ollife and wife. It is not dated, but is written on the same sheet as the will of Edward Osborne of Elizabethtown, proved 14 Jun 1714. Which maybe Benjamin was the son of Samuel and Abigail in his early teens. William says he knows of no other Abigail in the area at that period. Samuel died 11 Jan 1711/12 again which is different date then others have stated. Now was Abigail the step dau of Samuel Rose or was she a daughter in law? A lot of research has been done by George Farris from the Lineage of William Bunnell/Ann Wilmot as it applies to the ancestry of William Bonnell of KY. (Not sure who this William is.) According to his research he has listed Nathaniel Bonnell/Susanna Whitehead (this line I have some of) Samuel Bonnell Sr/Susannah ? (this line is what is above, not sure) Samuel Bonnell Jr/ ? William Bonnell/ ? The "Kentucky Bunnells" WIFE - Abigail ?Unknown Sources for Abigail: Family group sheets from Salt Lake City state she was step daughter of Samuel Rose. Families of Ancient New Haven CT by Jacobus pg 359. William Austin who published Bunnell/Bonnell Newsletter stated Abigail was daughter in law of Samuel Rose.

HUSBAND - Benjamin Bunnell

Family group sheet from Salt Lake City list death date as 27 May 1760 but cemetery records of Connecticut Farms says 27 May 1769. Bonnell History by Edgar Gibby also gives death date as 1769. New Haven Families by Jacobus says he died 17 May 1760 and all agree he md Sarah Potter. Cem. rec say age 78 in 1760 when died. If Benjamin left no will and wife Sarah left her possessions to her Potter brothers and sisters, it would make sense that she died after Benjamin.

Bunnell/Bonnell Newsletter published by William R. Austin Vol X #2 1 Apr 1996 pg18 states he has done much research on the Benjamin Bonnells of NJ prior to 1800 and this is what he came up with for this Benjamin. "Believe him to be the first Benjamin in NJ the son of Nathaniel and Susannah (Whitehead) Bonnell. Born abt 1682 in Elizabethtown. Lived there the rest of his life and died there 27 May 1760. Benjamin's name appears as witness on at least 15 wills in Elizabethtown from 1716 to 1758. In 1731 he was High Sheriff of Essex Co. His wife Sarah (Potter) died 17 Dec 1760. He left no will but Sarah left her possessions to the children of her Potter brothers and sisters, so is believed they had no children. Although Sarah was 14 years younger then Benjamin it could be possible that Benjamin was married before with unknown children.

He also states there was a Benjamin Bonnell and wife Margaret 13 Mar 1734/35 that signed a Quit Claim to Joseph Bonnell of Elizabethtown. Sam Headly Sr., grantee and witnesses Joseph and Nathaniel Bonnell. ?Could be this Benjamin with a former wife or another Benjamin?

WIFE - Sarah Potter

Sources for Sarah: Info from Connecticut Farms cemetery records. Both are buried there. Sarah died at age 64.

Bunnell/Bonnell Newsletter Vol X # 2 pg 18, William stated Sarah's death was 17 Dec 1760. With husband Benjamin dying 27 May 1760 with no will and Sarah left her belongings to her Potter brothers and sisters.

So is cemetery records right of William? If Sarah left her belongings to brothers and sisters it would make sense she died after he did.

Reads as follows: "Here lieth ye body of Nathaniel Bonnell who died Sept ye 4 1736 in ye 67 year of his age" Maria Roseberry visited the cemetery and took pictures of his stone in the summer of 1992, which she sent me a photo copy.

Nathaniel was County Collector in 1724 Essex Co. and also signed the East Jersey Associations in 1729.

Family group sheet list 6 children and will list 6 children living and one deceased.

Book "William Bunnell & His Descendants" by Ruth Duncan stats William married Mary Searing.

"Bunnell Newsletter" by William Austin states William married Mary Searing and her parents were John and Susanna (Pine) Searing.

"Bunnell/Bonnell Family in America Vol 1" by William R. Austin pg 52-56

Miss Gladys Ingram of Stillwater, OK had sent William Austin extensive research records that she had done on the Searing family and fully believes Mary was the dau of John and Susannah Pine Searing of Hempstead, Long Island, NY. She was however unable to locate the will of John Searing but in the division of some of the lands owned by his sons in 1713, recorded in Town Records of North and South Hempstead, Vol II p 334-335 plainly states that there was a will. Here was named John, Jearns (James), Simon and Jonathan Searing as sons of John. A later entry Vol II p27 adds to these the name of Samuel Serring of Elisabeth Town in ye county of Essex in east Jarsey. No daughters were mentioned.

However in the 1920's a librarian in the Queens Borough Public Library in Jamaica, Long Island, began a collection of records of some of the early families of Long Island, and this collection listes the sons of John Searing as named in the town records and adds the names of his 3 daughters, Mary, Hannah and Sarah.

The naming of children lend strong support to this fact. The children listed in Nathaniel's will of 1736 were Nathaniel and Mary, named for their parents, Isaac, the name of Nathaniels grandfather Isaac Whitehead and also of his brother Isaac Bonnell, Sarah, Hannah and James, names found on the list of John Searings children and Abigail, the name of Mary Searing's Aunt, a sister of her mother. The name of Mary also favorite among her five brothers, three of the five named a dau Mary and one, Jonathan named his only daughter Mary. Samuel Searing of Elizabethtown, NJ honored all three of his sisters by naming daughters after them.

Several connections of Bonnell and Searing families together in NJ as well.

Notes	CHILD 2 - Nathaniel Bonnell III* (Continued) "Bunnell/Bonnell Family In America Vol 1" by William R. Austin has some info on Nathaniel and Joanna Miller. pg 80-81. Nathanile & Joanna spent the first 12 of 15 years of their life together in Elizabeth. Their daughter Jane, who died when abt 10 yeras of age was buried in the cemetery at the Presby. Church there. 1736 Nathaniel, with his mother Mary, acted as administrator of his fathers estate. In 1739 he was one of the signers of a petition to Governor Morris to procure from the King a charter of incorporation for the town of Elizabeth as a free town or borough. The charter was granted and on 8 Feb 1739/40 Nathaniel was appointed assistant alderman and a member of the Common Council for the free borough and town of Elizabethtown. He was a freeholder of the Borough of Elizabethtown in 1755 also. In some of the reocrds he is called Capt. a military title which he prob. earned in the militia. Nathaniel and family removed to Turkey (now New Providence) NJ. Possibly this was "my land above the mountains west from Elizabethtown", which he inherited under the terms of his fathers will. Nathanile was a wheelwright. He bought land along the Passaic River in Chatham, NJ. The area was then called "Bonnelltown". His house still in 1991 was standing at 32 Watchung Ave, Chatham, is being restored and has been open to the public from time to time. Nathaniel died 18 Nov 1763 in his 67th year and was buried in the Bottle Hill Presby. Cemetery at Madison, Morris Co., NJ. His gravestone read "Here lies the Body of Capt. Nathaniel Bonnel, who departed this life, November ye 18 Anno Domini, 1763 In the 67th year of his age" His widow married second Deacon Timothy Whitehead and died 1 Feb 1793 at age 91 and also buried in the Bottle Hill cem. Tombstone dates for James, Sarah, Abraham and Jane. Family group sheets from Salt Lake City. MARRIAGE: Not located record but prob. md Essex/Union Co. NJ about 1730 as first child born 1731. Now it looks like James's father was Nathaniel and Sarah's grandfather, even though they were only 15 years of age apart. According to Bunnell and Broadwell history they also say this. DEATH: Will of James was printed in the NJ Archives Vol ?, pg 25, of which I have a copy of it abstracted. Signed: Nathaniel Bonnell. 1736" Mary was made executrix and Nathaniel executor of the will. The witnesses were Jesse Moffard, William Jones and Benjamin Bunnell. Inventory of the personal estate was valued at 80 pounds, 15 shillings and 2 pence. Tombstone records from First Presbyterian Church Yard, Elizabeth, Union Co. NJ state his death as 1736 and died at age 67 years. Reads as follows: "Here lieth ye body of Nathaniel Bonnell who died Sept ye 4 1736 in ye 67 year of his age" Maria Roseberry visited the cemetery and took pictures of his stone in the summer of 1992, which she sent me a photo copy. Nathaniel was County Collector in 1724 Essex Co. and also signed the East Jersey Associations in 1729. Family group sheet list 6 children and will list 6 children living and one deceased. Nathaniel's father used the spelling of Nathaniel Bunnell, which some did. Also has been written Bonnell which is the way the will is written here. Family group sheets list name as Bunnell and all children as Bunnell but most used Bonnell. Also info from Susan George on this line. DAR records in Franklin Co. IN list info on mg of Nathaniel and Mary Searring but also gives Mary's birth date as 1682 and then starts the birth ages and names of children as first one in 1699. The will was printed in copy of "Bunnell Newsletter" by William R. Austin, where he cites sources of William Bunnell and His Descendants by Ruth C. Duncan and New Jersey Wills. The Bonnell Family by Gardner "William Bunnell And His Descendants" by Ruth Cost Duncan FT Wayne, IN library #929.2 B88524d (researched Oct 1992) Copied several pages. Didn't carry anymore info on Hannah Broadwell but did list more info on James and Sarah Broadwell on pg 29, list his will and notation from will a note against David Broadwell and daughters, two being Mary Blackford and Abigail Blackford. States sources as New Jersey Genealogical Magazine Vol 35 and Mrs Edna Myers and James Harty. "Day Unto Day" A Study of the Day Family in America by Margery Day Hanson pub 1978. States he was County Collector in 1724. His wives name was Mary, perhaps surname of Searing. Referred to as carpenter in his will. "Burr-Bowles Genealogy" by Ruth Burr Powell pub. 1995 FT Wayne, IN library #929.2 B939p (researched Oct 1995) Pg 37-49 & 212-217 Info starts with earliest Thomas Bonnell 1560-c1607 England, first wife had 7 children, Benjamin being one and 2nd wife had 4 children. From there same info on the direct line. She lists Nathaniel and Mary Searings children but no marriages of any of them. "Harold Frederic Powell Genealogy" by Harold F. Powell pub 1991 FT Wayne, IN library #929.2 p869ph (researched Oct 1992) Pg 1-3 & 12-31 Several known lines besides Bonnell, but also starts with Thomas Bonnell 1560-1607. Stated sources for children of first wife, Vera Reeve, Registrar General, National Huguenot Soc, Register of Qualified Huguenot Ancestors, Washington, DC 1983 p12. His info on Nathaniel and Mary Searing's children listed Hannah as md to Richard Broadwell but nothing about wife of James. "Thunder Over New England, Benjamin Bonnell, The Loyalist" by Paul J. Bunnell pub. 1988 FT Wayne, IN library #974 B88t (researched Oct 1995) Copied several pages, among them pg xviii which states "William Bunnell/Bonnell, b.c.1606/17 Cheshire, England, son of Benjamin 1570- and Rebecca Brooks. He was pioneer who came to Watertown, MA in 1630 and moved to CT and deserted his family on several occasions. His wife's father Benjamin Wilmot, supported them for many years as William went back and forth to England. It is said that he returned to England in 1654 and died in Barbados on 1 Aug 1678" pg 93, Appears to follow the line of Benjamin Bonnell/Bunnell SR (Loyalist Corporal) 1744-1828 Greenwich Parish, Kings County, New Brunswick, Canada. md 1779 Sarah (?) "Bunnell and Allied Families" by Joan England Murray, Palatine, IL pub 1990. FT Wayne, IN library #929.2 B88524m (researched Oct 1992) In the forward pg iii she states the ancestry of the emigrant ancestor, William Bunnell, remains a mystery in spite of nearly one hundred years of research. At one time, descendants of William Bunnell were welcomed into the Huguenot Society using him as their link to the Huguenot, Thomas Bonnell of London and Norwich, this is no longer accepted, since adequate proof cannot be found regarding William's father. She has delved into the early history and has used several sources of which she lists them all for her research. Through her research she leans towards William being the son of Thomas but no proof. I believe she has done more research than anyone on this line. "Bunnell/Bonnell Family In America Vol 1" by William R. Austin pg 54-58 has stated much the same info as above in his book of which I have a copy. pub 1999. CHILD 3 - Samuel Bunnell Family group sheet from Salt Lake City says b. 167- d. 1715. Bonnell History by Edgar Gibby lists no record for Samuel. New Haven Families by Jacobus says Samuel md. Abigail, step dau of Samuel Rose, which is what the family group sheet used as info. Bunnell/Bonnell Newsletter by Wm Austin vol X # 2 pg 18 has stated Samuel Bonnell, brother of Benjamin (who md Sarah Potter) married Abigail _____ daughter in law of Samuel Rose. Believe they had no children. But was possible there was one Benjamin Bunhill of Elizabeth Town who binds himself, with the consent of his mother Abegell Bunhill, as apprentice to Anthony Ollife and wife. It is not dated, but is written on the same sheet as the will of Edward Osborne of Elizabethtown, proved 14 Jun 1714. Which maybe Benjamin was the son of Samuel and Abigail in his early teens. William says he knows of no other Abigail in the area at that period. Samuel died 11 Jan 1711/12 again which is different date than others have stated. Now was Abigail the step dau of Samuel Rose or was she a daughter in law? A lot of research has been done by George Farris from the Lineage of William Bunnell/Ann Wilmot as it applies to the ancestry of William Bonnell of KY. (Not sure who this William is.) According to his research he has listed Nathaniel Bonnell/Susanna Whitehead (this line I have some of)

CHILD 4 - Lydia Bunnell

Family group sheet from Salt Lake City says b. 1680. Bonnell History by Edgar Gibby says prob. md Samuel Little. New Haven Families by Jacobus says Lydia md Ephraim Price but family group sheets say Mary Jane md Ephraim Price. Samuels name spelled Little or Littell.

The Compendium of American Genealogy vol 7 pg 376: List info for Samuel and his family but had info wrong on Lydia, listed her brother as her father and Vol 6 pg 704 states the same wrong info.

From the internet and book "The DeFreest Family genealogy put on by Kevin DeFreest and e-mail address: kevin@defreest.net Apr 2000. This source listed Lydia b. abt 1677 and md Samuel Littell 1700 Elizabeth, NJ and only listed one son Nathaniel Littell. Also listed Lydia's grandmother as Ann Mary (?) and others have been Mary Brown.

CHILD 5 - Mary "Jane" Bunnell

Family group sheet from Salt Lake City list her husband as Ephraim Price. Bonnell History by Edgar Gibby says prob. md Ephraim Price. New Haven Families by Jacobus list no info for Jane.

CHILD 6 - Benjamin Bunnell

Family group sheet from Salt Lake City list death date as 27 May 1760 but cemetery records of Connecticut Farms says 27 May 1769. Bonnell History by Edgar Gibby also gives death date as 1769. New Haven Families by Jacobus says he died 17 May 1760 and all agree he md Sarah Potter. Cem. rec say age 78 in 1760 when died. If Benjamin left no will and wife Sarah left her possessions to her Potter brothers and sisters, it would make sense that she died after Benjamin.

Bunnell/Bonnell Newsletter published by William R. Austin Vol X #2 1 Apr 1996 pg18 states he has done much research on the Benjamin Bonnells of NJ prior to 1800 and this is what he came up with for this Benjamin. "Believe him to be the first Benjamin in NJ the son of Nathaniel and Susannah (Whitehead) Bonnell. Born abt 1682 in Elizabethtown. Lived there the rest of his life and died there 27 May 1760. Benjamin's name appears as witness on at least 15 wills in Elizabethtown from 1716 to 1758. In 1731 he was High Sheriff of Essex Co. His wife Sarah (Potter) died 17 Dec 1760. He left no will but Sarah left her possessions to the children of her Potter brothers and sisters, so is believed they had no children. Although Sarah was 14 years younger than Benjamin it could be possible that Benjamin was married before with unknown children.

He also states there was a Benjamin Bonnell and wife Margaret 13 Mar 1734/35 that signed a Quit Claim to Joseph Bonnell of Elizabethtown. Sam Headly Sr., grantee and witnesses Joseph and Nathaniel Bonnell. ?Could be this Benjamin with a former wife or another Benjamin?

CHILD 7 - Joseph Bunnell

Family group sheet from Salt Lake City and cemetery records of Connecticut Farms agree on death date. As does other record.

Family group sheet and New Haven Families by Jacobus agree he md Rebecca, widow of Samuel Riggs 1st and family group sheet list 2nd mg to Martha (Frazee) Clark.

Bonnell History by Edgar Gibby says he md Martha ?.

Joseph was listed as yeoman. He was also Major and first Mayor of Elizabeth NJ and Judge of Supreme Ct of NJ according to 1st Families of America Vol 7 pg 27.

His will was abstracted in the NJ Archives Vol 30 pg 51. Written 6 Oct 1746 and proved 22 Mar 1747-8. Was of Borough of Elizabeth, Essex Co. NJ, Yeoman and being advanced in years. List wife Martha, children: David, Joseph,

HUSBAND - Richard Broadwell

The will of Richard Broadwell was pub. in NJ Archives 1st series Vol 30 pg 62 which was abstracted. 19 Jul 1732 written, proved 2 Sep 1732. Richard Broadwell, of Elizabeth Town, Essex Co., yeoman. Children: John, David, Lydia, Sarah, Rachel and Margaret Broadwell, all under age. Father in law, Nathaniel Bonnell and Samuel Chandler to take care of little daughters, Rachel and Margaret. "Plantation I purchased of Jonathan Allen on the north side of the great Island by Woodruffs Creek". Executors: son, John and brother William Broadwell. Witnesses: Charles Hole, Mary Broadwell, Arnall Jolly. Lib B pg 348

Daughter Sarah was married by this time to James Bonnell but in will listed as Sarah Broadwell. Wife was also not listed so believe she had died before this time.

23 Aug 1732 Inventory. f117.19.08 includes debts due from William Broadwell and John Baker; made by Samuel Potter and Jonathan Allen.

WIFE - Hannah Bonnell

Info from Susan George on this line. DAR records in Franklin Co. IN list her as dau but she was not listed in will of her father in 1736. Although it was stated her three children were but not named. However other sources list 6 children for her. Her husband's will was written 19 Jul 1732 and she was deceased before that as well.

CHILD 1 - Sarah Broadwell

Essex Co. partly in Union Co. NJ. Scotch Plains now in Union Co. NJ. It hasn't really been proven that this Sarah married James Bonnell but many have stated so. If it was this Sarah she would have married her Uncle which isn't unheard of but is difficult to believe. There were connections between the Bonnell family and the Broadwell family in different generations.

BIRTH: Plains Bapt churchyard records. Tombstone dates for James, Sarah, Abraham and Jane. Family group sheets from Salt Lake City.

DEATH: She was listed as wife in will of James as it was printed in the NJ Archives of which I have a copy. Her death date was also in Scotch Plains Bapt churchyard records. Was said she died at the age of 78 (or "in the 76th year of her age")

Husband	James Bonnell *
Wife	Sarah Broadwell *
Notes HUSBAND - James Bonnell * (Continued) James's father was Nathaniel and Sarah's grandfather, even though they were only 15 years of age apart. According to Bunnell and Broadwell history they also say this. DEATH: Will of James was printed in the NJ Archives Vol ?, pg 25, of which I have a copy of it abstracted. James was also Capt in NJ Militia in Indian uprising. 28 May 1788: James Bonnell, of Essex Co., yeoman, abstract of will. Wife Sarah, household goods and riding chair, and use of my negro. Sons: Stephen, Abraham, and Daniel, Plantation where I live. Stephen's part to be along land of John Smith Shotwell of 80 acres. Abraham is to come next and then Daniel. Grandson Jonathan Price, land I bought of my son Abraham, 29 Apr 1760. Grandson Jacob Hearty, a note I have against David Broadwell, dated 17 Apr 1781. Granddaughter Joanna Price 10 pds. Daughters: Jemima Hearty, Sarah Wilson, Abigail Blackford and Mary Blackford each 20 pds. Residue to my said children. Executors: friend William Darby and my son Abraham. Witnesses: William Elstun, John Marsh, William Coles. Proved 16 Oct 1788 1 Oct 1788: Inventory, Lib 36 pg 482 (NJ Archives) made by John Darby and William Elstun f289.18.5 worth. Correspondence with Susan George, 7919 W. Weldon Ave., Phoenix, AZ 85033 (197-) as well as others. Info from Susan was from correspondence with Mrs Celia Fleming for Dennis and his family. Other sources researched was NJ Archives Vol 36; Gen. Mag. of NJ 8:68 and 35:64; Gen. Mag of NJ 7:15 Lost records of Westfield Church; Westfield Presbyterian Church 1728-1928 by Philhower. Also info from "Bunnell Newsletter" by William R. Austin. Info from "William Bunnell and His Descendants" by Ruth Duncan. Info from Kay Ohana, 5020 San Marque Cr., Carmichael, CA 95608 had info in the Bonnell/Bunnell Newsletter of Jan 1997 Vol 11 #1 on Nathaniel & Susanna and son Nathaniel and wife Mary Searing who was said to be dau of John Searing and Ann Pearsall. (Others had said she was dau of John and Susannah Pine Searing). This line continued thru their son James and Sarah Broadwell and their daughter Jemima who md Dennis Harty and their son Jacob and wife Rhoda Fleming and their dau Jemima Harty. WIFE - Sarah Broadwell * Essex Co. partly in Union Co. NJ. Scotch Plains now in Union Co. NJ. It hasn't really been proven that this Sarah married James Bonnell but many have stated so. If it was this Sarah she would have married her Uncle which isn't unheard of but is difficult to believe. There were connections between the Bonnell family and the Broadwell family in different generations. BIRTH: Plains Bapt churchyard records. Tombstone dates for James, Sarah, Abraham and Jane. Family group sheets from Salt Lake City. MARRIAGE: Not located record but prob. md Essex/Union Co. NJ about 1730 as first child born 1731. Now it looks like James's father was Nathaniel and was Sarah's grandfather, even though they were only 15 years of age apart. According to Bunnell and Broadwell history they also say this. DEATH: She was listed as wife in will of James as it was printed in the NJ Archives of which I have a copy. Her death date was also in Scotch Plains Bapt churchyard records. Was said she died at the age of 78 (or "in the 76th year of her age") Will of husband: 28 May 1788: James Bonnell, of Essex Co., yeoman, abstract of will. Wife Sarah, household goods and riding chair, and use of my negro. Sons: Stephen, Abraham, and Daniel, Plantation where I live. Stephen's part to be along land of John Smith Shotwell of 80 acres. Correspondence with Susan George, 7919 W. Weldon Ave., Phoenix, AZ 85033 (197-) as well Marian Burnett & Maria Roseberry as well as several others.

Other sources researched was NJ Archives Vol 36; Gen. Mag. of NJ 8:68 and 35:64; Gen. Mag of NJ 7:15 Lost records of Westfield Church; Westfield Presbyterian Church 1728-1928 by Philhower.

Several other books checked but not all listed to date.

CHILD 1 - Stephen Bunnell

Info from family group sheets from Salt Lake City. Also Bonnell History.

BIRTH: Although they don't agree on where he was born, either Scotch Plains (Elizabeth) Union Co. NJ or Elizabethtown, Essex Co. NJ. (Elizabethtown is now in Union Co. NJ.) Most other children were born in Elizabethtown so he was probably as well.

MARRIAGE: Not located mg date but prob. abt 1754 as first child born abt 1755. His wife was said to have been widow of Mr Blackford (and he died 1764 Warren Co. OH) before she married Stephen. If this is the case Stephen was married before as he had children before they married. No proof of this.

DEATH: Was stated he died in OH 16 March 1813 (which would have been after his will was probated so believe he would have died before Feb. He is listed as having 8 children.

His will also from the book "Warren Co. OH Will Records 1803-1853" pg 25. Will dated 13 Oct 1812 and recorded 16 Feb 1813. Here Ephraim Clark, husband of daughter Mary was listed as executor with son Nathaniel Bunnell.

Stephen's will was probated in Warren Co. OH on 16 Feb 1813, reads as follows: "I, Stephen Bunnell, give to my daughter, Rhoda Bunnell $50 of my property as money; to my sons James, Stephen, Jonas, David and Nathaniel Bunnell $1 each; and to my daughter, Mary the balance of my estate. Son, Nathaniel Bunnell and Ephraim Blackford, husband of my daughter Mary, Executors. Signed: Stephen Bunnell. 13 Oct 1812. Witnesses: Luther Russell, Fergus McLean & John Blair."

Info from the book "William Bunnell And His Descendants" by Ruth Duncan states Steven was buried in the Old Baptist Church cemetery near Ridgeville, OH. Also stated Stephen served in Capt. Samuel Jones's Co., Hasbrouck's Regiment during the Rev. War. This book also stated wife Mary was widow of Nathaniel Blackford.

Info from Norma Marlene Stities Sullivan, 102 Crest Drive, Delphi, IN 46923 Mar 1998 stated Stephen born Scotch Plains, Essex Co. NJ (Now Union Co.). Also stated he died 3 Mar 1812 believe it should be 1813 as will was written Oct 1812 and prob. 16 Feb 1813 so again would have been before Feb, not in March.

Info from Bunnell Newsletter Vol II #4 Oct 1988. Here stated Steven Sr was born in Scotch Plains and came to Mason Co. Ky where he lived for some years before moving to Warren co. OH. He sold his farm to his son Stephen. All buried in old Baptist Cemetery, Ridgeville (which no longer exists).

CHILD 2 - Susan or Hannah Bonnell

Not sure of name, both have been used in family group sheets from Salt Lake City. Don't know for sure when born, died or who she married first. Was stated she md Jonathan Price 2nd and had 2 children Jonathan and Joanna Price who were listed in will of James Bonnell 1788. Susan/Hannah was not listed in will as a dau, just grandchildren listed.

CHILD 3 - Abraham Bonnell

Info from family group sheets from Salt Lake City. Also info from Bonnell History. His birth and death from cemetery records from Scotch Plains Bapt. churchyard where they are buried. Abraham birth date on tombstone 28 Aug 1736. Died age 83 yrs 5 mo 8 days. Other source says was born 3 Sep 1736. No marriage date has been located that is known but prob. abt 1764 if Jane age 19 when md. If they weren't md before 1764 and he was born 1736 he would have been abt 28. Jane would have been abt age 19. He and Jane had 15 children and not all birth dates are known.

Also info from Susan George and General Mag. of NJ 25:64 listing Union Co. Gravestones and State of NJ Index of wills and Susan's correspondence with Mrs Celia Fleming. This correspondence use the last name spelling as BUNNELL.

Info from the book "William Bunnell And His Descendants" by Ruth Duncan lists Abraham as having 13 children: Susanna, Nathaniel, Stephen, Abraham Jr, Abraham Jr, James, Sarah, Elizabeth, Samuel, William, Esther, Rebecca and Daniel. (Mary and Benjamin weren't listed here).

CHILD 4 - Jemima Bonnell

Two birthdates for Jemima: ca 1744 Scotch Plains, NJ and ca 1737 Elizabethtown, Essex (now Union Co.,) NJ.

Also son Jacob was listed in will of James Bonnell 1788 (his grandfather). Was said the family moved to TN. No record of when Jemima Hearty died or where to date. Also family group sheets from Salt Lake City she was listed as dau of James and Sarah and also info from Bonnell History.

Info from Kay Ohana, 5020 San Marque Cr., Carmichael, CA 95608 from the Bonnell Newsletter Jan 1997 Vol 11 #1 issue listed Jemima born abt 1744 in Scotch Plains, NJ and died before 20 Feb 1811. Md Dennis (Thevnis) Harty abt 1763 Scotch Plains, NJ. Listed her parents as James and Sarah Broadwell Bonnell and grandparents as Nathaniel Bonnell II & Mary Searing Bonnell.

Kay sent me info on the children via e-mail Aug 1997. However the info doesn't agree with what Susan had sent on the children. Kay listed Anne Harty b. 30 Sep 1764 Morris Co. NJ (twin); Jacob (twin); Joseph b. ca 1769 Morris Co md Mary Deane 8 Dec 1789; Lydia b. 11 Aug 1774 d. 26 Mar 1822 md Wm McCoy 12 Aug 1794; Jane b. 1775-1785 d. bef 1819 md George Mayers Miers; Daniel b. ca 1776 Va md Nancy Anderson 24 Aug 1815; Rebecca b. bef 1792 md Robert Casteel 19 Mar 1818.

Susans list was: Jacob b. 31 Mar 1765 NJ, d. after 1830 md Rhoda Fleming; Anne 30 Sep 1764 NJ, Phebe b. 6 Nov 1769 NJ, Daniel, Jemima, James and Rhoda.

CHILD 5 - Sarah Bonnell

Info from family group sheets from Salt Lake City. Also she was listed in will of father in 1788.

CHILD 6 - Mary Bonnell *

*Find A Grave internet site listed her birth unknown, death date 6 Apr 1788, (her death and birth dates vary so not sure. A pic of a monument with many Blackford's on it, Esq Benjamin and Mary and others. Also a blowup version so can be read, only names. She was listed as wife of Benjamin Blackford Esq. And under Spouses: Benjamin Blackford Esq no birth-death 1797 and another Benjamin Blackford 1750-1822 (so not sure what this is all about-GLT)

Info from Genealogical Magazine of NJ Vol 9 #1 pg 15: Marriage of Benjamin Blackford to Mary Bunnell 21 Nov 1773 (Lost rec of Westfield Presb. Church).

Info from Bonnell family history. Name spelled many ways but most popular was Bonnell.

Also family group sheets from Salt Lake City. Essex Co. is now in Union Co. NJ.

Mary was also listed in will of her father, James, in 1788 NJ.

Their mg recorded NJ Westfield Presby Bapt. Church Essex Co. NJ.

Children were listed as born when mother was 46 and 49 which is unusual but not impossible I guess. First child born 1774 and next one 1785 (why the span of almost 10 yrs?) Next 3 in right sequence.

Research done by Susan Russell sent to Jerry Sander and I received copy Mar 1996. Used sources as Morris Co. NJ Bible records and IGI of NJ. Listed Marys parents as Gershom and Anna Catherine Bonnell. Bonnell history list parents as James and Sarah Broadwell Bonnell. If Mary was listed in fathers will of 1788 was it this Mary or another that md a Bonnell? I believe this Mary was dau of James and Sarah.

A bible record that was located at the DAR library in Washington DC had info on Mary Bonnell who md Benjamin Blackford and listed their 5 children starting born by 1774 it looks like, (very hard to read) then Mary's birth was listed as 3 Oct 1737 (what it looks like, but can't be sure). Last child was born 1792 and that would make her 55 so pretty sure that date is wrong and could be 1747. Also her birth could be 1757 which is what it looks like in another paper but that doesn't agree with the Bonnell history either. Husband Benjamin's birth date of 1750 agree with other sources we had.

CHILD 7 - Daniel Bonnell Info from family group sheets from Salt Lake City. Also info from Bonnell History. Not much known on Daniel to date. If this Daniel md Martha in 1779 and he was born ca 1733-35 (believe this to be wrong. he would have been age 44-46. (the 1851 birth date is prob. correct.) Info from the book "William Bunnell and his Descendants" by Ruth Duncan. Stated he was born 1751 and died 1796. Married Martha Hughes in the Westfield Presbyterian Church. Daniel served in the Eastern Battalion of Morris county Militia as a private in Capt. Moses Munson's Co. In 1786, Daniel was a member of the Scotch Plains Baptist Church. Tradition says: "Daniel eloped with Martha Hughes, daughter of a Tory family. They left NJ about 1794/5 and traveled to Lexington, KY. Daniel secured a land grant in Butler Co. OH. He cleared the land in OH and built a cabin on it. He returned to KY and then journeyed to NJ to sell the land he owned there. On the return trip to KY he was murdered and widow Martha and a posthumous daughter, in 1796/7, left KY and traveled to the new home in OH where Martha may have married again". It is said Daniel and Martha had 4 daughters and five sons. Ruth only located two. She cited her sources as NJ Gen. Magazine, Foote Family History, History of Morris Co, NJ, Mrs Zoe Magden and Claude B. Mitchell. CHILD 8 - Abigail Bonnell * *Find A Grave internet site listed her birth and death dates and places. Picture of her grave marker and one of entrance to cemetery. She was aged 85y 6m 5d of age. (copy) BIRTH: Part of Middlesex Co. is now Essex and Union Co. NJ. Not sure what part they were living. Cemetery Records and also Bonnell Records give date. Family group sheets from Salt Lake City list Abigail's birth date as 1741 and others have listed it as 1744. Cemetery 1754. Although family group sheet list her as dau of James and Sarah I am wondering if she was for sure? Although one Abigail was listed in will of this James who died 1788. So is the birthdate off. MARRIAGE: Not located date or place but probably 1771 or before in Piscataway, NJ as both were living there at the time. If born 1741 and md 1772 she would have been abt 31 yrs of age and if born 1754 would have been 18 which is more like the age to have been married. Although her brothers and sisters were all listed as marrying of later age if right. The ones listed in the will of James do match the marriage records that were located. DEATH: Will of Isaiah Blackford recorded Will Book C pg 189-190-191-360-361. I have copy of the will and inventory. There was dowers and division papers, no reference to name of wife or children. Did say orphaned children and listed 3 son in laws- Ameger Bell, Thomas Richey and Frederick Reed. Son Zephaniah was administrator of estate. Inventory dated 12 Apr 1809 Woodford Co. KY. NOT LOCATED ANY COURT RECORD FOR ABIGAIL in Jefferson Co. IN. CHILDREN: 6 known were born between 1772 and 1790, may have been more? There were no marriage records of any Blackford in Woodford Co. KY. Located no land records in Woodford Co. KY for Isaiah Blackford. CENSUS RECORDS: 1790 Not located KY/NJ? There was one Isaac Blackford in Fayette Co. with other Blackfords dated 7/23/1789 which could be Isaiah or not? 1800 Woodford Co. KY Isiah Blackford. Also from Tax list as is 1790. 1810 Woodford Co. KY Abigail Blackford, males 16/26-1 females 16/26-1 over 45-1. 1820 Jefferson Co. IN pg 149 Abigail Blackford, female over 45-1 widow. 1830 Not located, maybe living with children, prob. Jefferson Co. IN. 1840 Jefferson Co. IN there was one Z. Blackford age 50/60 with family and one Z. Blackford 40/50 with family and one William 20/30 with with female age to 5 and also one female age 70/80 (so who was that?) and one Sarah age 60/70 with male of age 60/70 (so who are they?) (Sarah maybe Sarah Lafarico Blackford who md Isaiah Blackford but why listed as head of house?)

BIRTH: Birth date recorded Piscataway, NJ Vital Records.

MARRIAGE: Recorded NJ Westfield Presby church, Essex Co. (now Union Co.) NJ. Also Bonnell records.

DEATH: Not located death to date. He was listed in will of father, John 1784- 86. There was a Benjamin Blackford Esq. d. Aug 1797 in 48th year which makes birth 1749/1750 buried in the Bound Brook Presbyterian Churchyard which is located in Somerset Co. NJ. Was this this person?

Mildred Stonehouse Baker says this Benjamin b. 19 Feb 1762 and died 21 Nov 1842 where? Not born this date as believe Piscataway, NJ vital records list him.

Book "Blackford Genealogy 1640-1997" by Delores Crews pg 6 list his death as 1842.

Research done by Susan Russell and she has John and Susannah Blackford with 12 children and Mahlon as one of them (which DAR records say is son of John & Susan but John isn't son of Jeremiah but Benjamin but believe Nathaniel). Also stated birth date of Benjamin was supplied by Paul Martin Lake, a cousin in Indiana.

Info on children differs also and dates are questionable. Jerry Sander sent me a fgs apparently sent to her by Evelyn Warren and children were listed as: John b.1775 md Susanna; James b.1785; Judge Isaac b 1782 md Mary Mills, Elizabeth Mills; Mary, David/Daniel?, William, Thomas, David, Martha md Samuel Kestor/Keaton; Lovena md Robert White; Lydia b. 1782; Phoebe b. 1792; Susannah b. 1786 md David Hagmer; Elizabeth Md Thomas Sweetman. (I know some of these are not children of Benjamin and Mary-GLT).

The John that md Susanna was son of Nathaniel and Mary Daniels Blackford not Benjamin and Mary Bonnell Blackford

	Info from Genealogical Magazine of NJ Vol 9 #1 pg 15: Marriage of Benjamin Blackford to Mary Bunnell 21 Nov 1773 (Lost rec of Westfield Presb. Church).
	Info from Bonnell family history. Name spelled many ways but most popular was Bonnell.
	Also family group sheets from Salt Lake City. Essex Co. is now in Union Co. NJ.
	Mary was also listed in will of her father, James, in 1788 NJ.
	Their mg recorded NJ Westfield Presby Bapt. Church Essex Co. NJ.
	Children were listed as born when mother was 46 and 49 which is unusual but not impossible I guess. First child born 1774 and next one 1785 (why the span of almost 10 yrs?) Next 3 in right sequence.
	Research done by Susan Russell sent to Jerry Sander and I received copy Mar 1996. Used sources as Morris Co. NJ Bible records and IGI of NJ. Listed Marys parents as Gershom and Anna Catherine Bonnell. Bonnell history list parents as James and Sarah Broadwell Bonnell. If Mary was listed in fathers will of 1788 was it this Mary or another that md a Bonnell? I believe this Mary was dau of James and Sarah.
	A bible record that was located at the DAR library in Washington DC had info on Mary Bonnell who md Benjamin Blackford and listed their 5 children starting born by 1774 it looks like, (very hard to read) then Mary's birth was listed as 3 Oct 1737 (what it looks like, but can't be sure). Last child was born 1792 and that would make her 55 so pretty sure that date is wrong and could be 1747. Also her birth could be 1757 which is what it looks like in another paper but that doesn't agree with the Bonnell history either. Husband Benjamin's birth date of 1750 agree with other sources we had.
CHILD 1	- John Blackford
	*Find A Grave internet site listed John Blackford son of Rev. Benjamin and Mary Blackford died 10 May 1807. Could be this John born 20 Dec 1775 NJ. Death date does fit Blackford Genealogy book. (copy) Be about age 32 so could be this John. Pic of his grave marker which has John, son of Rev Bbenjamin & Mary Blackford
	Not located a Margaret md to this John in FAG either since don't have any dates.
	Book "Blackford Genealogy 1640-1997" by Delores Crews listed birth date as 1774 and died 10 May 1807. Other source had birth date as 20 Dec 1775 and no death date. Said married Margaret Laing.
	Family Group Sheet from Evelyn Warren of Des Moines, IA had stated this John died 1825 and married Susannah and moved to Iowa and had 13 children. (not this John)
	I wasn't able to locate any John in Iowa that fit this info.
CHILD 2	- James Blackford
	Not located any James fit this person in IN or IA in Find A Grave. Checked all cemeteries that listed Muncie IN and also No James to fit.

Research done by Susan Russell sent to Jerry Sander and I received copy Mar 1996. Used sources as Morris Co. NJ Bible records and IGI of NJ.

MARRIAGE1: Apparently married Mary Mills and she died after a son was born if that were true.

MARRIAGE2: If married to Elizabeth Mills (was this the one and only mg or did he actually marry twice?) Would have married 2nd abt 1811-12 as first child born 1813 and had 9 children according to bible records that came from the DAR library.

THIS INFO IS ABOUT ANOTHER ISAAC BLACKFORD (SON OF JOSEPH & MARY STAATS BLACKFORD)

His obit listed no second wife and no children as heirs, only half sister & two nephews.

Received info from Jerry Sander Mar 1996 who sent some pages of book on Blackfords written by Nora Blackford Jones and N. Elizabeth Brant which on pg 4-5 states this Isaac Blackford was son of Benjamin and Mary Bonnell Blackford was born 1786 (early rec state 1789) and graduated from Princeton University at the age of 20 and md Mary Mills in 1810. His wife and infant son died a year later and in 1812 he went to Dayton, OH stayng there only a short time and going from there to Brookville, IN then to Salem and finally to Vincennes, the capital of Indiana Territory. In 1814 he became clerk of the territorial legislature and continued in this office until Indiana became a state, when he was made Speaker of the House of the first State Legislature. Eight months later, Governor Johnathan Jennings made him Judge of the Indiana Supreme Court. Of the hundreds of decisions he wrote only seven were ever reversed. His Supreme Court Reports, consisting of eight volumes, are a necessity in every Indiana lawyers library and are considered an invaluable contribution to the nation's law.

Was also stated their son (Isaac's son) John Ellison Blackford was President of the Iowa State Grange and his children and grandchildren lived in IA & CA. Before it was stated his wife and son died 1811 and never mentioned a 2nd marriage or other children so where did this John come from??? (was from 2nd mg to Elizabeth Mills.)

His father was bro of Ephriam and Jeremiah, and Nathaniel who md Catharine Ross.

Appears to be a lot of discrepancies in this info. (more work needs to be done.)

CHILD 4 - Lydia Blackford

Research done by Susan Russell sent to Jerry Sander and I received copy Mar 1996. Used sources as Morris Co. NJ Bible records and IGI of NJ.

Book "Blackford Genealogy 1640-1997" by Delores Crews pg 25 listed birth date and md Richard Cuerin.

Family Group Sheet from Evelyn Warren of Des Moines, IA had stated this Lydia as daughter but no mg info.

CHILD 5 - Phebe Blackford

BIRTH: Part of Middlesex Co. is now Essex and Union Co. NJ. Not sure what part they were living. Cemetery Records and also Bonnell Records give date. Family group sheets from Salt Lake City list Abigail's birth date as 1741 and others have listed it as 1744. Cemetery 1754. Although family group sheet list her as dau of James and Sarah I am wondering if she was for sure? Although one Abigail was listed in will of this James who died 1788. So is the birthdate off.

MARRIAGE: Not located date or place but probably 1771 or before in Piscataway, NJ as both were living there at the time. If born 1741 and md 1772 she would have been abt 31 yrs of age and if born 1754 would have been 18 which is more like the age to have been married. Although her brothers and sisters were all listed as marrying of later age if right. The ones listed in the will of James do match the marriage records that were located.

DEATH: Will of Isaiah Blackford recorded Will Book C pg 189-190-191-360-361. I have copy of the will and inventory. There was dowers and division papers, no reference to name of wife or children. HUSBAND - Thomas C. Richey SR.

*Find A Grave internet site listed his birth 1775 VA and death 1864 Vernon Twp, Jennings Co. IN. Also buried Spencer/Marsh cemetery. (family has listed other dates as well). Spouse: Mary Bonnell Blackford 1772-1857. He listed 6 children and info on each of them. (copy)

BIRTH: Not sure where he was born, has been stated VA & NC. Prob. VA. Info from family members and census records list ca 1777 VA, some of children have also stated he was born WV, KY also.

MARRIAGE1: Their marriage bond was recorded from Commonwealth of KY, Just Not sure what Co? Not located in Woodford Co. KY. but 1800 her parents were living there at that time. Have copy of their marriage bond but not the CO. Others had sent copy of mg and said from Woodford Co. KY.

The mg bond listed Polly Blackford md to Thomas Richey. Also a concent signed by Isaiah Blackford and wife to allow the marriage of their daughter Polly. Prob. Woodford Co. KY. Isaiah Jr listed on the bond with Thomas Richey so maybe Father gave concent and brother signed the bond? Witness for the concent by father was John Richey and Isaiah Blackford Jun. (WHO WAS JOHN RICHEY-bro to Thomas?)

MARRIAGE2: Recorded at Jennings Co. IN court house to Elizabeth ca 1859.

DEATH: Info from his will recorded in Jennings Co. IN Bk 2 pg 216 and probated 23 Apr 1869. William K. Bantz, executor and will was written 13 Oct 1864. I have a typed copy of will but no original (under Richey file). He does not list a wife (maybe 2nd wife had died?), leaves his daughter Mary Roseberry household goods, and silver watch that she has be given to his son Thomas Richey, Isiah son, leaves notes paid for. Rest of estate divided between my three children, Polly, Thomas and John, to my other children not mentioned I leave nothing.

CEMETERY: Records of wife state on her gravestone "Consort of Thomas Richey" List complete dates. Cemetery called Spencer or Marsh cem. Same cemetery but sometimes used different name. Located in Jennigs Co. IN.

Dear Mrs. Broadway,

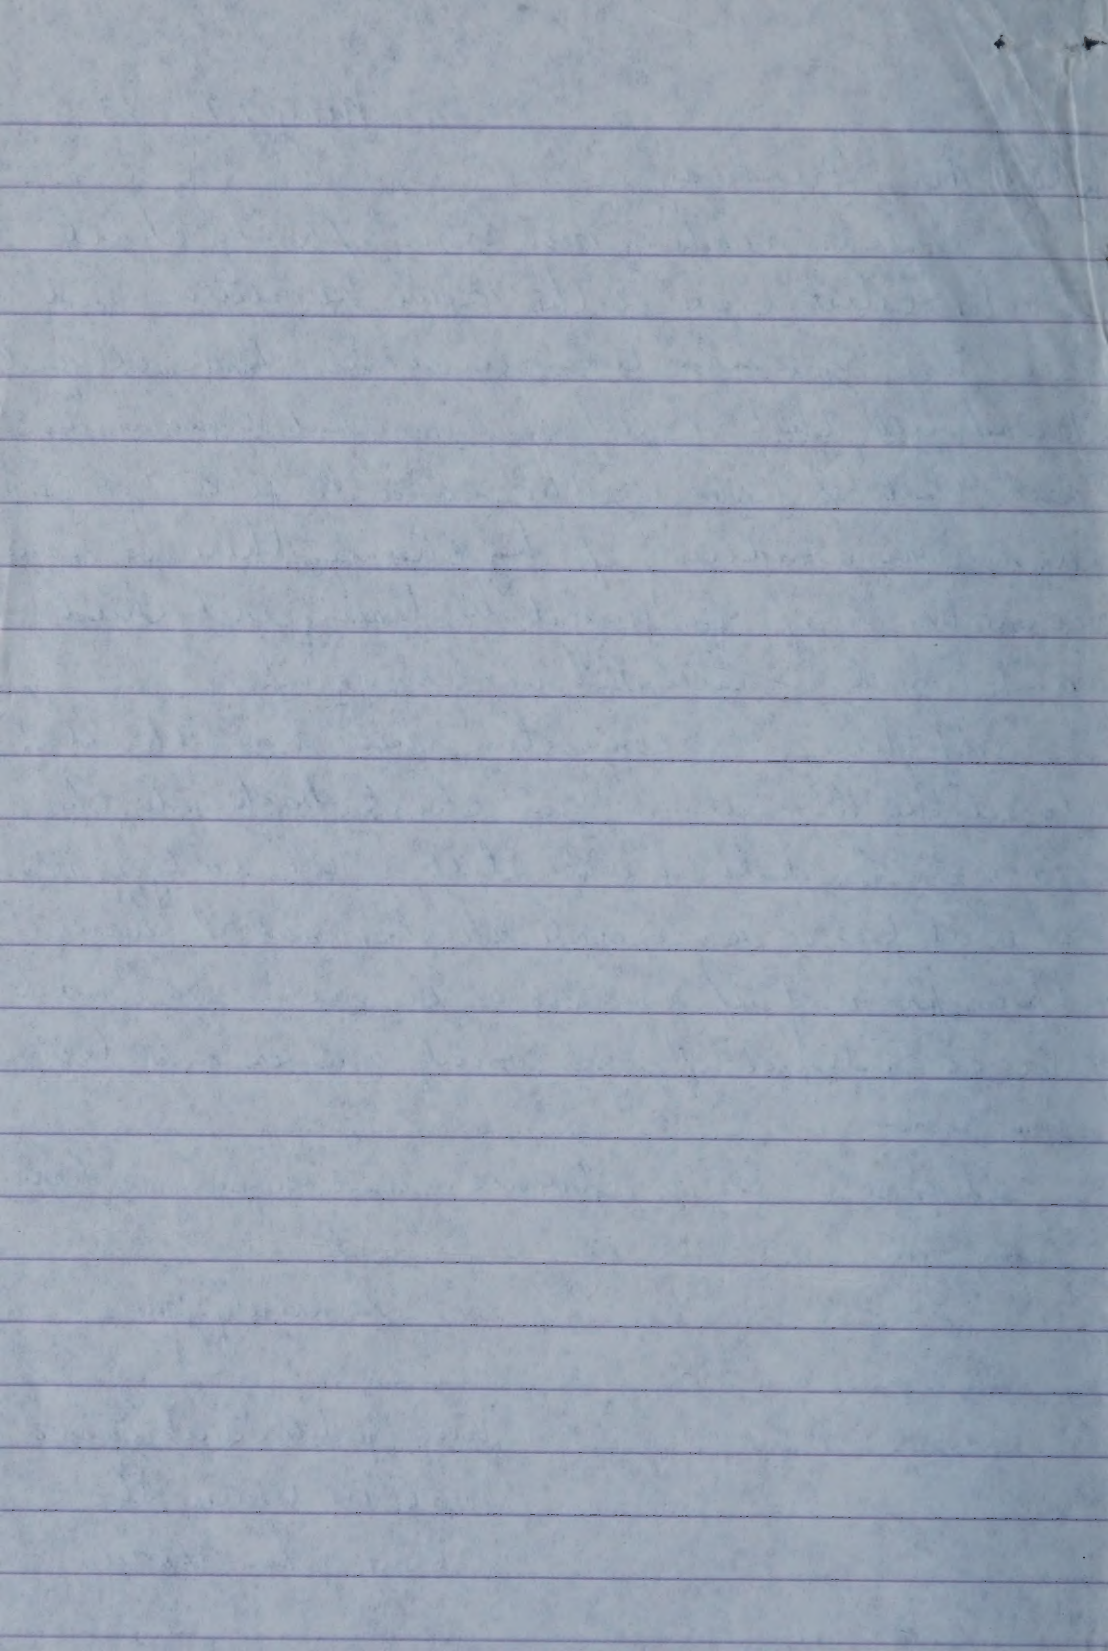

I was reading over your family chart in the latest issue of the Lowe Newsletter and see that you have two surnames Bonnell and Broadwell that I feel is somewhat uncommon and that I have in the same area as yours, and was wondering if by chance there is some connection or if you might be tracing each child and would be interested in having info.

If there is a connection then I am thrilled to see the Bonnells in your chart back into the 1500's. To date I am still in the early 1700's. I will list on a separate sheet what I have thus far and if you see a connection I would be so grateful if you would answer and let me know.

Thanking you in advance - and hoping to hear from you.

Sincerely yours,

(Mrs.) Judith Burkhardt

Do you know if these names fit in with yours?
If you find one of your direct lines desc. married a Lacy, I'll be glad to share my Lacy's that I can take back to the progenitor John Lacy who died in 1690 aged 104.

Hear

Jackpot!!! Re: Broadwells.

In today's my distant Utah cousin sent me 10 pages (x) photocopied from microfilm on the one and only Broadwell Genea. He just copied through Richard Broadwell.

I am enclosing the pertinent data on these Broadwells. Blaine said there were 125 more pages besides the 10 pages he mailed.

What a thrill to have proof on Richards father, plus learn mother's name. This from Newbury, Mass. where I have 7 other very early ans.

Ironically enough, I am waiting on appl. from the Sins & Daughters of Newbury (printers before 1700) to join their society, so now I can include her as well.

This really made my day and I hope it makes your day as well.

As Ever,
Judi (Burkhardt)

Dear Gladys,

Thank you so much for answering my letter regarding the Bonnell / Broadwells. It was a pleasure to hear from a new distant cousin.

How exciting to be able to research at the lib. in Salt Lake City, and was successful at finding further info. on your ancestors.

I went through my files and found on a xerox copy I made from the periodical N.J. Genesis a query from Mrs. H. T. Jeffery of N.Y. where she was searching for Wyllis, Lacy, Searing, Bonnell & Gurnee. (Wish par. of Mary Searing who mtd. Nathaniel Bonnell b. 1670 Elizabethtown, N.J.). So it appears you are on the right track for Searing.

I failed to note date of this issue of the N.J. Genesis but by coincidence a correspondent in '82 sent me some of the letters she saved of Mrs. Jeffery from the 1970's. Back then she (Mrs. Jeffery) mentioned she was in her 80's. I tried writing her last yr. but no reply + my letter never came back. Mrs. Jeffery desc. through one of Abraham + Susannah Wells; Lacy's dau. who mar. John Gilbert (see chart enclosed).

I spent yesterday at the St. Wayne, Ind. lib. (now 2nd largest in U.S. for genealogy) and tried to find a Broadwell Genea. but no luck. I feel if one was available they would have a copy.

I did find a genea. titled "Genealogy of the Bonnell Family as it pertains to Edgar Marsh Gibby and His Descendants", ^{pub. 1965} and it takes our Bonnells through Nath'l + Mary (—) Bonnell's children and it states children:

- (25) Hannah - married Richard Broadwell
- (26) Nathaniel - Born abt. 1696-7 - Died Nov. 18, 1763
- (27) Abigail - no further record
- (28) Isaac - no further record
- (29) Sarah - no further record
- (30) Mary - married Samuel Chandler
- (31) James - no further record born 1710 died Sept. 27, 1788 married Sarah B. born 1715 died Mar. 4, 1791 See N.J. Gen Hist. Mag. Vol. 35 No. 2 1960

Data on James was written in (probably after bk. was typed up & read for the press.

After above entry it carries just the lineage of (26) Nathaniel down, so I did not xerox beyond the ch. of Kath'l & Mary (Searing?).

The bk. states the Bonnells were Huguenots and I was thrilled to learn this. Is this the bk. you found your info. in or did you find yours elsewhere on Bonnells? If you would want a copy of these 8 pages if you don't already have this, I'll be glad to make you a copy.

I'll keep looking for the Broadwells and if I find anything, I'll see that you get a copy.

What a coincidence seeing your Abigail Bonnell Blackford died in Ind.

I live in Adams Co., Ind. We moved here from Dayton, Oh. in 1971. In 1973 I got interested in genealogy and tackled all 4 grandparents at the same time. Wasn't long before I found out my Saxon ancestor left N.Y. in 1834 and settled in Blackford Co., Ind. about 35 mi. from where we settled which pleased me. Never knew when I lived in Oh. I had ancestors in Ind. nor did I ever think I'd one day live in Ind. Must have been fate the way it turned out & us settling so close to 2nd, 3rd & 4th gr. grandpar.

Ironically enough my great grandfather Saxon although born in Blackford Co., Ind. met and married my gr. grandmother in Athens Co., Oh. & settled there. It was in Athens Co., Oh. my mother was born.

For their mode of transportation back then they certainly got around and traveled a lot. I'd love to learn how gr. grandpa in Ind. & gr. grandma in Oh. met one another, but will probably never know.

I have rattled on long enough for one letter so will close for now and eagerly await your next reply.

As Ever,

Are you researching the Treadway's? I have a genea. client who has early Treadway's. Maybe you two can help one another. In fact she happens to be the one who shared Mrs. Jeffery's letters.

Dear Judi;

Sorry to be so long in answering your last two letters but I was getting ready to go on vacation and had just gotten back from Salt Lake City and trying to put everything away so it didn't get lost and then seeing what I did have and what I needed to do when I went home on vacation to Iowa. I always go to Iowa City a couple days, but I only got there one time. We go to Bettendorf, Iowa every August to visit my Mother and they have a great library in Iowa City, The Iowa State Historical Library, and I always go there to do some work while home. A good thing this time as 2 ladies from Davenport were there that I knew and one was talking to the other about always finding her line and it was one I had so questioned her about it and it was the same line as mine and she gave me information on three generations back on the line. When I lived there I did not know of that line, in fact I just found out the connection while in Salt Lake City for sure.

I wasn't able to find out much on the Bonnell line though. There was one genealogy, Day Unto Day, A study of the Day family in America by Margery Frances Day Hanson 1978 that had a Bonnell line in it and took them back to the same first one we have. Also a book I received from interlibrary loan, "The Perverse Widow", or Memorials of the Boevey family and of Mrs Catharina Boevey of England., has information on the Bonnell family. Pub. 1898. This was interesting reading more than anything else.

While in Salt Lake City I had so many lines I wanted to work on and didn't find anything on some of the ones I really wanted. I found some family group sheets on some lines I needed more information on and did get some information on one line back to the Mayflower which I haven't been able to do as yet. In fact it was on our Bunnell line, (Bonnell), how about that. I'll send you a chart of lineage now and as soon as the weekend is over I'll copy some charts for you.

We have a new baby in the family, my youngest daughter Gayle Renee and her husband Randy Scott Bush had a son the 12th of Aug., named Caanan Scott Bush. The live here in Gatesville, but my oldest daughter and son live in Dallas and my son and his wife live there also and they all come here for the holidays and everyone is anxious to see the new baby. Jason is only 5 and he starts school this fall and he has had all the attention up to now so we hope he won't be jealous of the baby.

Thank you so much for the information on the Broadwell's. However I don't have anything on the children of Richard and Hannah Bonnell Broadwell. Would you sent me any information you have on their children. Do we agree that Sarah Broadwell that married the brother of Hannah, James Bonnell is the daughter of Richard and Hannah Bonell Broadwell. Hannah was born 1695 and don't know when they were married but do know he died by 1731 and says all children are minors. Although Sarah and James had their first child by 1731. James was born 1710 and Sarah 1715. She could have been 15 when married and this still meant she was a minor if in fact she was Richard's daughter. If not who's daughter was she? Hannah died before 1736. Do you have anymore on them?

I have not seen the Genealogy of the Bonnell Family you mentioned. My original information came from a lady in Arizona that was working on the same family. They didn't have one at Salt Lake City. They only had the Day Unto Day Genealogy pertaining to Bonnells.

Hope you have more good luck at Ft. Wayne. They say that is a very good library. I have never been there. Several ladies that I knew from Davenport Iowa go there quite often and usually find information.

Keep up the good work and please keep in touch and I'll get you the information as soon as I can.

Sincerely;

Dear Gladys,

How can I begin to thank you for your kindness extended my way in sharing all this Fantastic Bonnell info.? All I can say is thank you and that I appreciate it more than I can express.

I held off writing the day your letter came because I knew I would be going to the library and I had hoped to learn something (Anything) on the Broadwells, but I came up Empty handed. I only checked in Ct., so I feel sure something can be found. Also checked to see if there was a genea. on them, but no luck here either or on immigrant lists. Next, I will concentrate in N.J., where I should have started to begin with.

You can bet if I find anything I will gladly share it with you.

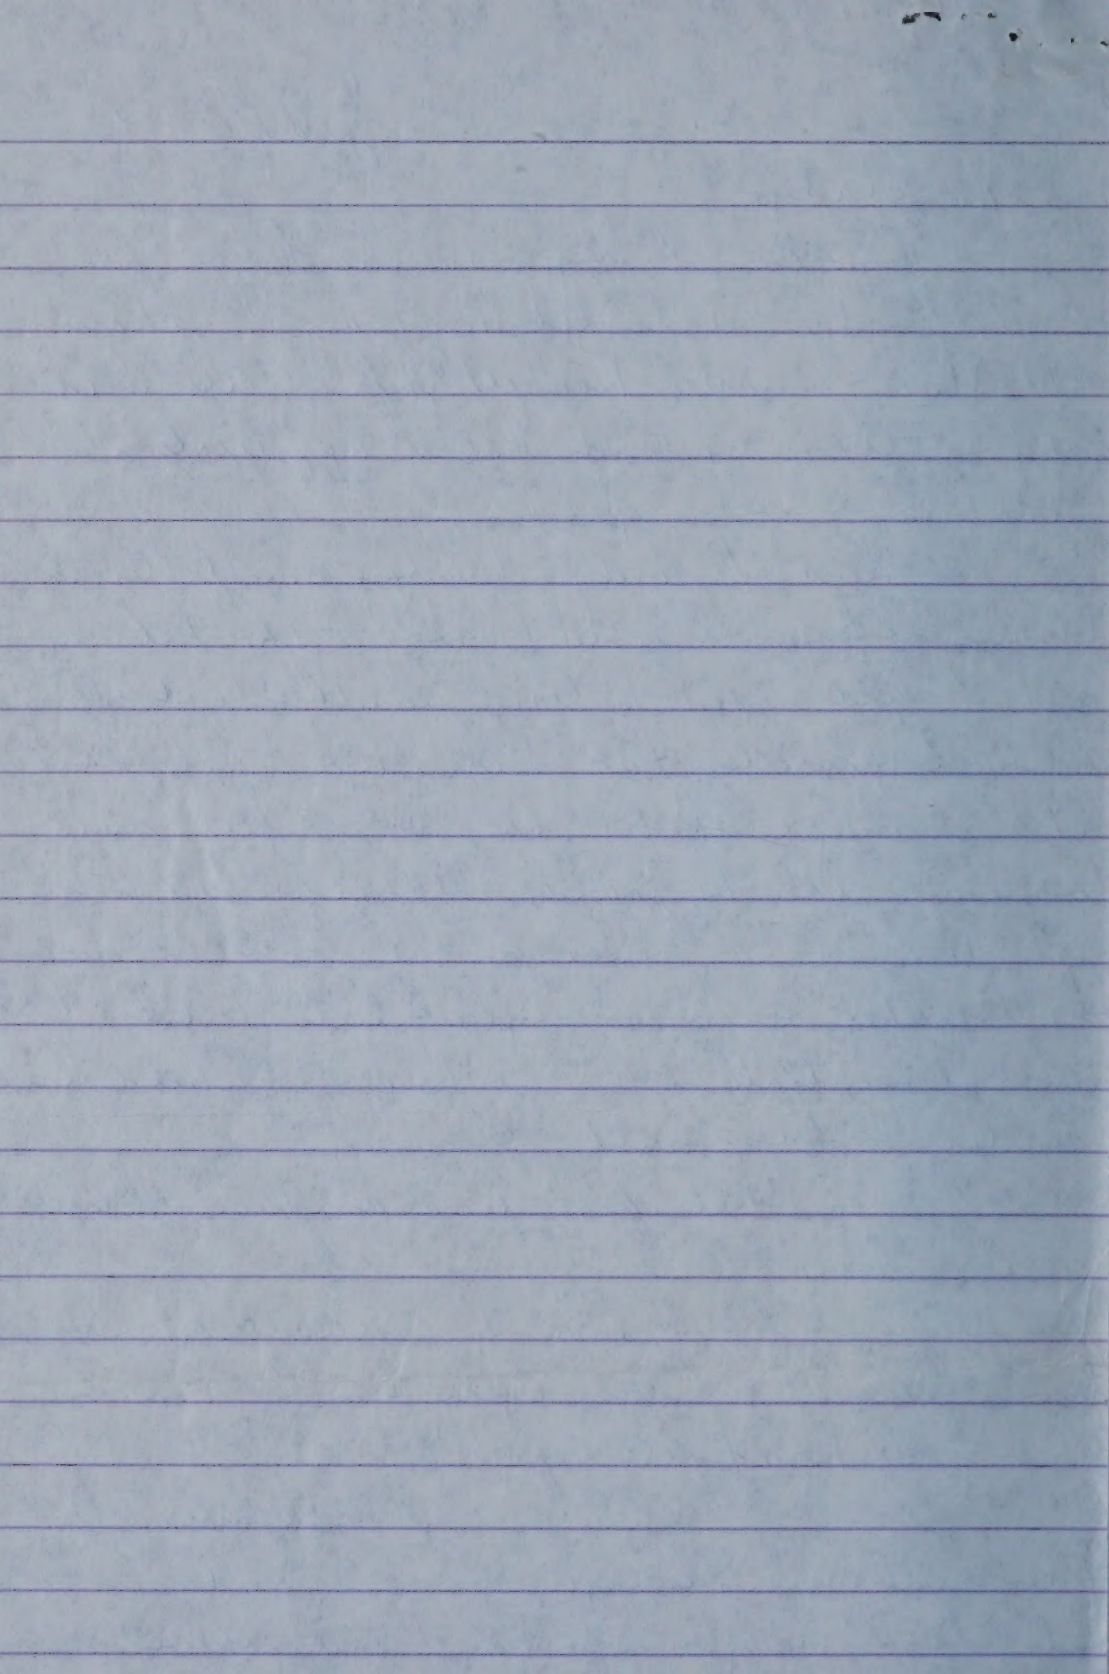

I wish I had more to contribute at this time. Hopefully I can repay you by finding some good Broadwell info.

As Ever,

I did mail you my lineage, didn't I? So many things going on, I'm not positive.

Judi

Dear Gladys,

This time around my search at the lib. on Broadwells' was a little more successful.

It "appears" Richards' father was Wm. Broadwell and mother Mary (—). With he had named children but they never cooperate when its needed the most, (smiles).

In the Passaic Valley, N.J. bk. there was a write up on Nath'l Bonnell, & Nath'l & Mary (dearing?). Here it says Nath'l wife was Hannah Miller of Westfield. Names ch:

1. Benj. Esq. m. Rachel Van Winkle
2. Nath'l (Capt.) m. 1) Eliz. Allen; 2) in 1775 Mary Simpson
3. John m. Sarah Carter
4. Sarah m. Samuel Roberts
5. Betsey m. Capt. Isaac Ward
6. Abigail m. Mr. Gardner
7. Mary m. Elijah Woodruff

This bk. is not complete by any means, but is still very helpful in researching.

I will continue to search and if I find more I will pass it along.

Thank you so much again for taking the time to help and share.

As Ever,
Cousin Judi

P.S. Do you want or need a correspondant on the early Dreadway's? This correspondant of mine Fran Lawrence's Dreadways connect with a Cable, but not sure how, when or time period other then early 1700's, and of course she is researching these Dreadways from this point on back, and probably has info. in general on them as most of us do.

Dear Gladys,

I saw your query on Stephen and Mary Bunnell in the Bunnell Newsletter. They were my 6th great grandparents. I descend down from Stephen through Jonas & Sallie Tomlin Bunnell, George Esom & Sarah Peck Bunnell, James & Charlotte Gustin Bunnell, Levi & Martha A. Miltenberger Bunnell, Lydia Bunnell married Sidney Beal (my great grandparents).

Wm Austin has Stephen & Mary Bunnell listed in his book (pgs. 154-157) with the proven & questionable information. If you don't have a copy of his book, I will be happy to copy those pages & send to you.

I was born in Warren Co., Ohio but now live in Montgomery County which borders Warren. I am an active member of the Warren Co. Oh Gen Soc. plus volunteer one day a week at the W.C.G.S. library when we aren't travelling.

I'm not sure what information in addition to what is in Wm. Austin's book plus the Bunnell Newsletters you are looking for? Always happy to exchange any information.

Sincerely,

Jane Bailey

Valentine's manuscript, which can be found in the New York City Library, the Congress Library, and perhaps others, clearly states that he could find no evidence to support his assertion that he had been and made it appear, and it has since been shown to be false. The manuscript also states that he was the son of Benjamin Bunnell, who was the youngest of six children, born in 1790 in Norwich, England, was apparently a carpenter. It doesn't appear in any earlier documents that I have found.

Dear Gladys:

Thank you for your subscription to the Bunnell/Bonnell Newsletter. By now you should have received your first issue. I hope you find it interesting.

Thanks also for the pedigree charts you included with your letter. They lead me to a question and a comment.

First, the question. You indicated the James Bonnell 2047 married Sarah BROADWELL 2048. What evidence do you have that Sarah's maiden name was Broadwell? Several other correspondents have also told me her name was Broadwell, but Sarah BROWNELL has also been suggested. Nothing that I have found in the way of a contemporary record gives her name as anything but "Sarah." Note that if she were indeed Sarah Broadwell, daughter of Richard and Hannah (Bonnell) Broadwell, she was her husband's own niece. This is not impossible, but it is very unusual. I would be delighted if you could provide the evidence for her identity.

And now for the comment. Your chart states that the parents of William Bunnell 2065 were Benjamin Bonnel and Rebecca Brooks?. While it is certain that William Bunnell came from England to the Massachusetts Bay Colony, absolutely nothing has ever been discovered to indicate when or where in England he was born or who his parents were. The nonsense that he was the son of Benjamin Bonnell, son of Thomas the Huguenot of Norwich, England, was apparently invented by Carolyn Syron Valentine in the 1920's. At least it doesn't appear in any earlier document that I have found.

Valentine's manuscript, which can be found in the New York City Library, the Congressional Library, and perhaps others, clearly states that she could find no evidence to support her assertion. But she went ahead and made it anyway, and it has since been repeated in many books, articles and manuscripts. For a while a number of people joined the Huguenot Society in America on the strength of this supposed relationship. However, that is no longer possible since the Society now realizes that there is no basis for this descent.

Benjamin Bonnell, son of Thomas, was a real person. He was born in Norwich, England (not Ypres, France) and was baptized there. At age 17 he went to London and lived with an older brother. He joined the Dutch Church in London. The following year his father died, and Benjamin was mentioned in the will. At 18 years of age, that is the last appearance Benjamin made in any record that has come to light so far. If he lived long enough to marry and have children, nothing has been found to indicate it.

Carolyn Valentine stated that, since there was no record showing that Benjamin had children, and no record showing a father for William, then obviously Benjamin must have been William's father. This is not an acceptable genealogical conclusion. Benjamin had several brothers for whom no children are known who would have been just as good candidates, and throughout England there were dozens of other men in the records who were more likely possibilities.

I am enclosing a printout of everything I have learned in my 35 years of research regarding your Bunnell/Bonnell ancestors.

Sincerely,

Bill

GENEALOGY OF THE BUNNELL/BONNELL FAMILY

WILLIAM BUNNELL

[Note that three numbers are used to identify each subject individual. The first is a number I have assigned to reflect both the generation number and the placement in each family. The second is the number assigned by Ruth C. Duncan, for the benefit of those of you who have or use her book, WILLIAM BUNNELL AND HIS DESCENDANTS. The third is the number assigned in Claude Bunnell's massive database.]

WILLIAM BUNNELL was certainly born in England, although no evidence showing the date or place of his birth has been found. From circumstantial evidence, I have concluded that he was born "about 1600." See Newsletter Vol. I, No. 1, page 3 (N-I-1-3) for a discussion of the evidence. The second issue of the Newsletter, beginning on page 2, contains every reference to William Bunnell, made during his lifetime, which has come to light so far. From them we glean the following brief account of his life.

He appears first in the Massachusetts Bay Colony, where he was selected on 28 September 1630 to be a juror in an inquiry concerning the death of one Austen Bratcher. Therefore, we can suppose that he was one of the settlers who arrived in New England in the great Winthrop fleet of 1630. (Charles Edward Banks, in his book THE WINTHROP FLEET OF 1630, identified this juror with the William Burnell who died at Boston in 1660/1. However, the name is clearly Bunnell in the record, and there seems to be no reason to assume it was spelled wrong.)

William Bunnell does not appear in the records again for the next ten years. In the meantime he married ANN WILMOT, daughter of Benjamin and Ann Wilmot. Presumably they were married at Massachusetts Bay, although I have found no record of the Wilmot family in Massachusetts. Benjamin Wilmot was one of the early settlers of New Haven Colony, where he signed the covenant some time after June 1639. No earlier record of him has turned up anywhere in the colonies, but it can be shown that most, if not all, the early settlers of New Haven first came to the Massachusetts Bay Colony, where they lived anywhere from nine months to ten years before moving to New Haven in 1638-43. I will assume that the Wilmots followed this pattern unless conflicting evidence can be found.

The first three children of William and Ann Bunnell must have been born at Massachusetts Bay. The order of birth given below is the traditional one, followed by Donald Lines Jacobus in FAMILIES OF ANCIENT NEW HAVEN, although no record seems to exist which mentions the age at any time of any of the three.

In 1640 we find the first of the numerous records of the public assistance provided to William Bunnell and his family, when the General Court of the Colony requested the town of Watertown to provide William Bunnell with a lot, which the Colony would pay for if William could not (N-I-2-2). If the lot was actually provided, no record of it has been
